Children Rescued From Burning Tenement on Summit of Telegraph Hill

Six Families Made Homeless; All Have Narrow Escapes From Horrible Fate

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Six families were rendered homeless, several children were rescued from peril and pandemonium reigned on the summit of Telegraph hill at 8 o'clock this morning when a blaze started in one of the closely crowded tenements. The flames which for a while leaped high from the burning building could be seen from afar and resembled a beacon light on the precipitous bluff. That some one was not killed in the excitement that followed during the half hour that the department was at work, was due to the nearness of the Hall of Justice and the fact that some twenty-five police officers were at the scene.

Two alarms were turned in for the fire, which started in the lower floor of the flat occupied by Manuel Del Gardo and his wife and two children, on inside Place, a small alley off Vallejo street, between Kearney and Montgomery. Just how the blaze started is not known. The Del Gardos were asleep and knew nothing of the origin of the flames until they found their room afire and the smoke choking them. Del Gardo succeeded in arousing his 7-year-old boy, Antonio, his wife and his daughter, Funsana, age 10. Taking Antonio in his arms and leading his wife, who carried the little girl, he struggled out of the building just as the bed on which he had been sleeping burst into flames.

RESCUES YOUTH.

At almost the same moment upstairs in a narrow apartment dense with smoke, Julian Sanchez rescued his boy Antonio after he had already taken his wife and the other children to places of safety. The blaze was first seen by Milneville Casanzo of 469 Vallejo street, from her porch, and the woman ran a block down the steep street to turn in an alarm, preventing the flames from gutting all the tenements on the hilltop.

The fire department had great difficulty in reaching the scene, it requiring six horses to pull a chemical to the summit. When the firemen arrived they found nearly 200 occupants of the tenements gathered around the burning building helpless, and it was not until these were moved out of the way by the police that effective work could be done.

The building was a total loss, and the families living in it as they lost everything they had save a few trunks, which had been dragged forth by citizens before the fire became too hot. The structure, which was composed of two-room

Slayer Granted New Trial on Old Charge

Sidna Allen Wins Point In Court; Posse Still Hunting Him.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Sidna Allen, for whom posess have been sought during the Virginia hills in connection with the Hillville court room tragedy, has been granted a new trial by the federal court on the charge of perjury of which he was convicted at Greensboro several months ago, according to advices to the secret service here.

The allegations grew out of a counterfeited case and Allen was sentenced by the district court to two and a half years in the penitentiary. He is out on $5,000 bail.

HEIR SENT TO STATE PRISON

Youths Tell of Fourteen Crimes in Which They Were Implicated

Mat Hickey Gets Year and Howard Webb Six Months in Jail

Heir to half a million dollars, Mat Hickey became a burglar and, with Howard Webb, committed nearly a score of crimes in Oakland and vicinity. Hickey pleaded guilty and today he was sentenced to serve one year in Folsom by Superior Judge Ellsworth. Other charges were continued with judgment suspended for three years from date.

Testimony introduced by the probation officers in the case of Hickey showed that he had been reared in luxury and the subject of considerable indulgence on the part of a grandmother and father and mother. His parents separated while he was a small boy, but each of them offered him a home. He went with his mother, who later remarried. Then Hickey drifted from home. He told the court that he had worked but about two months in his life.

ENGAGED IN CRIME.

Together with young Webb, they went into the criminal business wholesale, according to the police. They both confessed to having been implicated in fourteen robberies. They were arrested last winter in San Jose after an exciting chase by the owner of a house they had robbed, who pursued them in an automobile. Both were returned to this city for trial. Hickey gave his age as 28 years. Webb is 19 years old. In the case of Hickey it is provided that he shall be on probation for two years after his release from the penitentiary.

Webb was sentenced to serve six months in San Quentin. His stepfather, C. L. Buckles of Long Beach, appeared in his behalf. He told the court that the boy had left home when he was but 10

MRS. DE VINE SENTENCED TO TEN YEARS IN PRISON

Will Forger Gets Long Term; Makes Statement to Court

Harriet Loraine Fraser De Vine was sentenced to serve 10 years in San Quentin at noon today by Superior Judge John Ellsworth after the court had denied her plea for probation and for a new trial.

Mrs. De Vine pleaded guilty to having forged a will of the late Mary L. Swain of Berkeley.

The defendant sat in the criminal department of the Superior Court for nearly three hours this morning and saw half a dozen other prisoners sentenced to the penitentiary for terms ranging from six months to 20 years. She carried herself jauntily and appeared high in spirits.

Attorney P. M. Bruner addressed the court, stating that he had given some time to investigating the story told by Mrs. De Vine to the effect that she had confessed to the charge under a misunderstanding, and that she had only copied a draft of another document for the purpose of "fooling" another person.

IMPLICATES NEPHEW.

Mrs. De Vine implicated Arthur D. Lloyd, a nephew of Mrs. Swain, in the forgery, declaring that he had forged the name and date on the document which was later, she said, presented to Theodore Kytko, a handwriting expert, for his opinion as to its genuineness.

Assistant District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes interposed and said that he had been asked to make a statement for Mrs. De Vine that he did not place much reliance on her statements. He said that he had no recommendation to make as to the disposition of the case which the prosecution officer had reported adversely to the defendant.

"There are mitigating circumstances in this case," he said. "No one has been harmed by the forged will. No property was lost and there remains but the intent of crime, it seems. Mrs. De Vine is a woman of good traits, as there are many good traits about her character, but under the circumstances I have nothing further to suggest."

MRS. DE VINE SPEAKS.

In speaking for herself, Mrs. De Vine addressed the court and said:

"There were four drafts of the will made, and I would like to have them produced here as evidence had I been granted a trial. I copied a document in

FLEE FROM CANNIBAL INDIANS

Party of White Men Nearly Form Meal for Man-Eaters of Tiburon Island

Invited to Visit Camp, They Find Pot Already Boiling; Fight Follows

SAN DIEGO, April 12.—Members of a party of excursionists who made a six-months' cruise in southern waters on the yacht Paxinos which arrived here today, tell a startling story of a narrow escape from cannibals on Tiburon Island. The party which consisted of Colonel C. R. Baker, Captain Jack Ross, Mate John Lindquist, E. M. Hornsby and Vernon Smart left here last November on the yacht in search of adventure.

Two months ago, the Paxinos dropped anchor off Tiburon Island and all members of the party except Colonel Baker went ashore, whether they were invited very civilly by Indians who came out to meet them in small boats. The four men, proceeded quite a distance inland, when suddenly they found themselves in a thicket swarming with yelling Seris. They ran for their boat and had the advantage in the race, as the naked Seris could not move swiftly through the dense prickly shrubbery.

At a clearing the hunted men found a great fire under a steaming kettle large enough to hold a man.

RUN FASTER.

Then they ran all the faster, with the Seris in pursuit firing at them with rifles. The white men had no weapons with which to make reply. Reaching their boat they began rowing for the yacht. The Seris pursued in their canoes and the bullets continued to fly, but Colonel Baker began firing upon the Indians from the yacht. The men pursued finally got on board and the yacht getting under full speed soon left Tiburon far away.

Tiburon Island has long had the reputation of being inhabited by cannibals. It is on the east side of the Gulf of California.

GENERAL GRANT'S SUDDEN DEATH SHOCK TO NATION

WIFE WITH HIM WHEN HE DIES

Doctors Fail to Arrive Until After U. S. Army Officer Passes Away

Heart Failure Is Given as the Cause of Commander's Demise

NEW YORK, April 12.—General Frederick D. Grant, commander of the department of the East and son of the famous civil war general, died suddenly at midnight at the Hotel Buckingham, where he had been taken secretly Wednesday evening by his physicians. His presence in this city was not known until the news that he had been suddenly stricken was flashed to newspaper offices by the police. A policeman stationed near the hotel had called an ambulance at the request of an employee, who told that General Grant was choking to death.

Although there had been rumors of General Grant's illness and reports that he would never again take up his duties on Governors Island, the news of his death came as a distinct shock to the public.

DIES OF HEART FAILURE.

According to Dr. Robert Abbe and Dr. Edward B. Dench, his physicians, the death of the general was caused by heart failure. He had been suffering for some time, they asserted in an official statement, from "diabetes and attendant digestive disturbances."

Recent reports that General Grant had been in private pavilion in St. Luke's Hospital in the city suffering from a cancerous growth under the tongue, the same affection which caused the death of his distinguished father, were denied today by the hospital authorities. Dr. Abbe, who had been the general's family physician for many years, said informally that General Grant died of cardiac thrombosis or blood clot on the heart.

It was said a certificate to that effect would be filed with the health department.

MRS. GRANT PRESENT.

Mrs. Grant was with her husband when he died. A nurse was the only other person present. The first intimation that General Grant's condition had suddenly become serious was given when Mrs. Grant telephoned to the hotel clerk about 11:45 o'clock.

"The general is dying," she said hysterically. "Get a doctor."

She added that he had been seized with a choking spell.

The clerk made an effort to get Dr. Abbe on the telephone. Failing in this, he sent a bell boy to the physician's home nearby. The bell boy, the boy caused Policeman Malloy to inquire what the trouble was.

BOY GIVES ALARM.

"General Grant is choking to death; get a doctor," was the boy's response. Malloy turned in an ambulance call, but before the hospital surgeon reached the hotel both Mrs. Abbe and Dench had been found and were at the bedside.

The ambulance surgeon and the policeman who went to the apartments were told that there was nothing they could do. Dr. Abbe informed Coroner Holzhauer that he would file a death certificate promptly and that no inquest would be necessary.

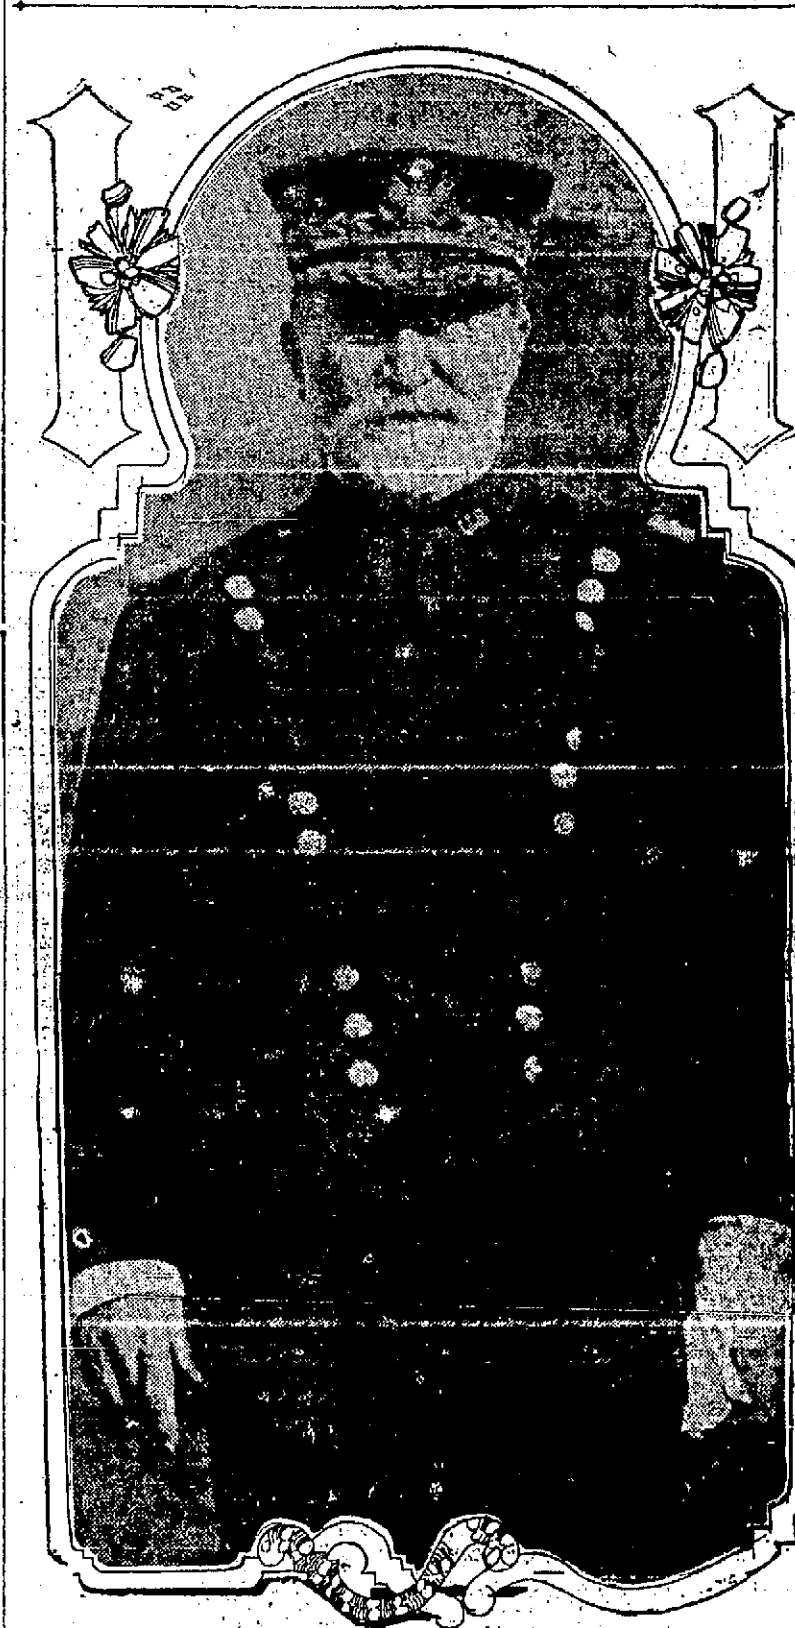

To newspaper men who reached the Buckingham shortly after midnight efforts were made by the attendants to deny that General Grant was at the hotel. The management finally was persuaded to communicate with the physicians, who announced that General Grant had died before their arrival. Drs. Abbe and Dench later

Explosion in Taxi; Several Are Injured

PARIS, April 12.—A bomb exploded inside a taxi-auto in the Rue de Lyon this morning. The blast shook the neighborhood, and wrecked the motor car. The chauffeur and several pedestrians were injured. The outrage is believed to have been committed by chauffeurs, many of whom have been on strike for over two months. The taxi-cab was passing along the Rue de Lyon from the place de la Bastille to the great railroad depot of the Trans Europe. Many windows in the vicinity were smashed.

Troops Mutiny and Set Fire to City of Nanking

SHANGHAI, April 12.—New troops mutinied last night in the center of Nanking, looting and burning many stores and residences. The Cantonese regulars remained loyal and surrounded the mutineers, whom they subdued. No foreigners were injured during the rioting.

Alameda Mayor's Wife Is Steadily Failing

ALAMEDA, April 12.—Mrs. W. H. Noy, wife of Mayor Noy, is barely alive this afternoon. Her physician announced today that he did not expect her to live through the day. The sick woman is starving to death. The last drop of nourishment of any kind taken by Mrs. Noy was swallowed a week ago. She cannot retain even a drop of water. The mayor is constantly by the bedside of his dying wife and has abandoned city and private business to be in constant attendance in the sick room.

Cheats Gallows by Taking Poison in His Last Hours

COLUMBUS, Ga., April 12.—James Jefferson, who was to have been hanged here early today, committed suicide by taking poison in his cell. Where he obtained the drug is not known. Jefferson shot and killed Policeman Marion Marchante while resisting arrest several months ago.

RAILROADS MAY BE TIED UP

23,000 Out of 25,000 Would Walk Out on Roads East of Chicago

General Managers' Association to Meet to Consider Counter-Proposition

NEW YORK, April 12.—By a majority of more than 23,000 out of 25,000 votes cast, locomotive engineers on fifty railroads east of Chicago and north of the Norfolk and Western have authorized a strike, should further negotiations with the railroad for increased pay fail. The count was completed at noon and the result announced by Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, to J. C. Stuart, chairman of the general managers' association of the railroads. The general managers have called a meeting here for April 15 to consider the result. The engineers' officers have notified Stuart they would remain here for a "reasonable time" to await the counter proposition.

The original demands of the engineers for increased pay aggregating 18 per cent recently were rejected by the railroads. Stone announced that 82.1 per cent of the engineers had voted to authorize a strike.

ASKS FOR PROPOSITION.

In his letter Stone asked if the railroads have any counter proposition to make and notified Stuart that if none is received, a strike on the fifty railroads is subject to call at any time.

"In addition to the 25,000 members of the Brotherhood," Stone said, "approximately 15,000 members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive, Firemen and Engineers also had voted. Their vote, he said, was overwhelmingly in favor of a strike. "The result speaks for itself," Stone said. "The next move is up to the railroads."

"If the railroads do not make a counter proposition will you call a strike?" he was asked.

"That is not a fair question at this time," he replied. "I cannot answer."

A report of the general managers' association said no formal call has yet been issued for the meeting which is reported to be scheduled for April 15, and that a meeting might be held either prior or subsequent to that date.

$550,000 Mortgage Filed by N. Y. Life

Record Made of Immense Loan to Kahn Brothers of This City.

A mortgage for $550,000 covering property upon which is being constructed the new Kahn Brothers' department store on San Pablo avenue, Telegraph avenue and Sixteenth street, was placed on file today by representatives of the New York Life Insurance Company. The loan made to Kahn Brothers is said to be the largest made outside of San Francisco in this state since 1906.

After the fire it is reported that the company reserved a very small section in the city across the bay in which it would make any loans at all. The recent transaction shows that Eastern capital has unbounded faith in the future of Oakland.

KNOWLAND TO AID FIGHT FOR BUREAU

The Congressman Promises to Work in Interest of Department.

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland has written the Chamber of Commerce pledging his support in opposition to the elimination of the bureau of manufactures in the Department of Commerce and Labor from that department by a failure in appropriations in Congress for the work.

Knowland's letter is in part as follows:

"I agree with you fully that the bureau has done splendid work, and I shall do everything within my power to prevent the appropriation from being cut. However, this is a Democratic house and they are cutting everywhere, without regard for the necessity of the items they slash."

The protest is being taken with Knowland by the trade and commerce committee of the chamber, A. Jonas, chairman, the local manufacturers and producers holding that the department had been of great value in research work and the accumulation of trade data.

Besides the Sanchez and Del Gardo families, the following persons lived in the burned building: Mrs. Gavriel, a widow, and her three sons, John Rodriguez, wife and two children, Erasmo Sanchez and wife, Francisco Blanco, and F. G. In all twenty-five persons were housed in the structure.

Six children had a narrow escape from death or injury during the progress of the blaze when they were caught on a porch from which the pillars had been burned away. Their companions, to whom they shouted in their predicament, spread a life net into which all jumped to safety.

CLEAN YOUR LIVER AND 30 FEET OF BOWELS WITH 'SYRUP OF FIGS'

More Effective Than Calomel, Castor Oil or Salts; Gently Cleanses the Stomach, Liver and Bowels Without Nausea or Griping; Children Dearly Love It.

You know when your liver is bad, when your bowels are sluggish. You feel a certain dullness and depression, perhaps the approach of a headache, your stomach gets sour and full of gas, tongue coated, breath foul, or you have indigestion. You say, "I am bilious or constipated and I must take something tonight."

Most people think from a physician they think of castor oil, calomel, salts or cathartic pills.

It's different with Syrup of Figs. Its effect is as that of fruit, of eating coarse food; of exercise. Take a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs tonight and you won't realize you have taken anything until morning, when all the clogged up waste matter, sour bile and constipation poison move on and out of your system, without gripe, nausea or weakness.

Nothing else cleanses and regulates your sour, disordered stomach, torpid liver and thirty feet of waste-clogged bowels like gentle, effective Syrup of Figs. Don't think you are drugging yourself. Being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, it cannot cause injury.

If your child is cross, sick and feverish, or its little stomach sour, tongue coated, give Syrup of Figs at once. It's really all that is needed to make children well and happy again. They dearly love its pleasant taste.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," and look on the label for the name—California Fig Syrup Company. That, and that only, is the genuine. Refuse any other fig syrup substitute with contempt.

C. J. HEESEMAN

GENERAL'S BODY MAY REST IN GRANT TOMB

Arrangements Have Not Yet Been Made for Army Officer's Funeral

sent down to the hotel management a statement in which they said:

General Grant died suddenly of heart failure without premonition at midnight. He had retired at 11 o'clock, apparently in better condition than for several weeks. Since his recent trip his condition had given no special anxiety to his physicians. General Grant had been suffering from diabetes and the attendant digestive disturbances, which seemed, however, to be perfectly under control. This sudden fatal termination came as a great surprise.

ORDERS MESSAGES SENT.
Lieutenant Marion Hauser, personal aide to the general, announced this morning that Mrs. Grant was bearing the shock with fortitude. She directed that messages be sent to General Grant's son, Captain Ulysses S. Grant III, of the engineering corps in Washington, and to his daughter, the Princess Cantacuzene, as well as to other relatives.

For more than a month General Grant's whereabouts had been a mystery. Following the announcement that he had been granted a four months' leave of absence, expiring June 1, reports were current that an illness, believed by many to be cancer of the throat, had caused his temporary retirement. These were denied at Governors Island, where it was stated repeatedly that General Grant simply had gone south for a rest.

Dispatches from Tampa, Fla., last week stated that he was at the winter home of Mrs. Potter Palmer of Chicago, a sister of Mrs. Grant.

The report that General Grant was in St. Luke's Hospital in this city for operative treatment, became public Wednesday, and while not officially confirmed, was widely credited.

The manager of the Buckingham, a quiet little hotel on Fifth avenue, stated this morning that he had been told that General Grant had come directly to the hotel in an automobile from St. Luke's. The patient apparently was at that time in good health and spirits and walked from the automobile to the elevator unaided.

DEATH A SURPRISE.
Although taken by surprise, friends in the War Department here for a long time had been under the impression that General Grant was a sick man.

The general admitted he was not feeling well last year, but declared his condition was the result of much work and that he would soon be restored to good condition if he could take a short vacation.

He went south and soon reports came to Washington of an alarming nature, indicating that symptoms of the same throat trouble, cancer, which had caused the death of his father, had made their appearance. These stories were promptly denied.

It is certain many of the officers who had best known General Grant were convinced that he probably would never again be able to resume active duty. It is true that his sudden death was not expected, but it was believed General Grant would soon retire.

Captain Grant, the general's son, arrived from Washington this afternoon. It is understood the arrangements for the funeral will be announced as soon as he has consulted with the father's commander of the U. S. Grant Post, No. 327, G. A. R., and who is no relative of the late general, called at the hotel to offer the services of the post or himself. The post acted as a guard of honor at the funeral of President Grant.

Body May Lie in Famous Grant Tomb

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Captain U. S. Grant III, the only son of the late Frederick D. Grant, did not learn of his father's death in New York until today. He took the first train to New York.

No one could make an authoritative statement as to the funeral arrangements nor was it known if the body would be buried in Arlington cemetery. It was suggested the body might be placed in the tomb where his illustrious father lies in the great memorial in Riverside Park, New York.

Having been an officer of the highest rank in the army, the late General Grant will be entitled to an imposing military funeral if such is the desire of his family.

General Grant's death vacates the post which, next to that of chief of staff, is regarded as the most important in the army—commander-in-chief of the eastern division. It is of such importance that it cannot long be permitted to remain vacant. It is probable that soon after the funeral it will be necessary to detail an officer of high rank for the position, probably Major General William H. Carter, now assistant chief of staff.

General Carter was the commander of the famous maneuver division in Texas last year and has been slated for detail as commander-in-chief of the department of the lakes.

Intimate Friend of Secretary Stimson

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Secretary of War Stimson, who for many years was in close intimacy with General Grant, was much affected at the death of his friend. He said he had long cherished a warm personal regard for General Grant and that the American people would retain a keen appreciation of his useful military career, his high civic virtues and kindly qualities of heart.

Stimson sent the following telegram to Mrs. Grant:

"I am deeply shocked to learn of General Grant's death. Mrs. Stimson and I send our deepest sympathy in your sorrow."

Witnessed Many Civil War Battles

Major-General Frederick Dent Grant, the eldest son of Ulysses S. Grant, the eleventh President of the United States, was born at St. Louis May 30, 1850. He was with his father during a part of the Civil war, witnessed the capture of Forts Henry and Donelson and through the Virginia campaign. He witnessed also the fights at Corinth, Vicksburg, Nashville and Petersburg.

After the war young Grant entered West Point and was graduated in 1870. For two years he served as a civil engineer for the Union Pacific railway and in 1872 accompanied General Sherman on a trip to Europe.

Grant served as aid-de-camp General Sherman and took part in the campaigns against the Indians. He served with Major-General Stanley in the Yellowstone expedition and in 1874 in the Black Hills expedition, after which he accompanied his father around the world.

He resigned his commission as first lieutenant in the army in 1881 and for a number of years was engaged in various enterprises. He was appointed minister to Austria by President Harrison in 1888, but resigned on the election of Grover Cleveland to the Presidency.

MADE COLONEL

Under the reform administration of Mayor Strong he was one of New York's police commissioners, but at the outbreak of the Spanish war in 1898 he became colonel in the Fourteenth New York Infantry and was appointed brigadier-general of volunteers on May 27.

On February 13, 1901, he was appointed brigadier-general, U. S. A., and reached the grade of major-general five years later. He served in Porto Rico and commanded the military district of San Juan.

He was in command of various brigades in the Philippines for several years, returning to the United States in 1902. He commanded the department of Texas 1902-4, department of the lakes 1904-8, and the department of the lakes again in 1906, and, finally, the department of the east, to which he was last appointed in the summer of 1910 to succeed Major-General Leonard Wood. In 1874 he married Ida M. Honore, daughter of Henry Hamilton Honore of Chicago.

McALLISTER, Okla., April 12.—Mrs. Julia O. Martin, of Evanston, Ill., was brought here today and placed in jail on the charge of having caused the death by poison of her mother, Mrs. Sophronia A. Martin, carried an investigation with the result that she was arrested.

years old and had gotten into evil ways. The light sentence was imposed owing to the youth of the defendant.

H. M. Johnson and Edward Schiller stole magnifying glasses from buildings at the University of California. Johnson, former sailor and world traveler, got away with one of the scientific instruments. Schiller, whose principal occupation appeared to be that of a gambler, stole two microscopes. Judge Ellsworth, looked through the large and when he sentenced Johnson and gave him one year in Folsom. He reversed the piece in dealing punishment to Schiller and the young German, who said that he had been in this country but a few years, and gave him one year in Folsom for each of the microscopes stolen.

20 YEAR SENTENCE

Eugene Quisada, alias Frank Wilson, was sentenced to 20 years in San Quentin and Walter C. McCullough got 15 years in Folsom. The pair held up and robbed Miles Dubbins last January at Ninth and Castro. They robbed him of his month's pay. Quisada has a bad record and according to preliminary testimony taken in the case, would have struck their victim with a sandbag had not McCullough interfered.

McCullough spoke to the court in his own behalf and told of having been a victim of drugs most of his life. Both of the men declared that they were under the influence of drugs at the time of the robbery.

"I have always had a good record," McCullough said. "I was arrested once in Alameda for vagrancy, but that is the worst that has been charged against me."

He showed papers indicating that he had been discharged honorably after a three years' enlistment in the army, and that he had purchased himself out of other enlistment after three months. He is a composer of songs and an accomplished musician. He had on his person copyright papers for some of his productions.

Archie McCoy was another prisoner charged with burglary who was sentenced today. He got two years in Folsom.

Harry Moore will serve 15 months for burglary.

He had been deceived, he said, and particularly so when on one occasion his wife smashed every picture in the house that had him portrayed in company with girls his own age.

Summer said that he was engaged in taking photos for sight-seeing parties and that Mrs. Summer always objected when he happened to get into a picture with girls. Her proclivity for breaking the plates cost him on an average of $30 a week sometimes, he said.

The following divorce suits have been filed:

Anna E. McCutcheon against William H. McCutcheon and Martha C. Schmidt against Daniel Schmidt.

The following decrees were granted: Gladys B. Hall from Frederick G. Hall, neglect, interlocutory; Therese H. Mann against Edward E. Mann, interlocutory; neglect; A. L. Garwood from George M. Garwood, failure to provide.

ELECTION OF HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS

Attorney-General Webb Sends Important Opinion to the State Superintendent.

SACRAMENTO, April 12.—An opinion which effects every county high school union high school and joint union high school in the state was handed down today by Attorney-General Webb in answer to a question submitted by the state superintendent of public instruction concerning the power of high school boards to elect teachers for the succeeding term after the first of June, whereas the members of such boards go out of office. It is held by the attorney general that the high school boards may, under the law, elect teachers for the ensuing term, notwithstanding the new boards do not take charge until July 1.

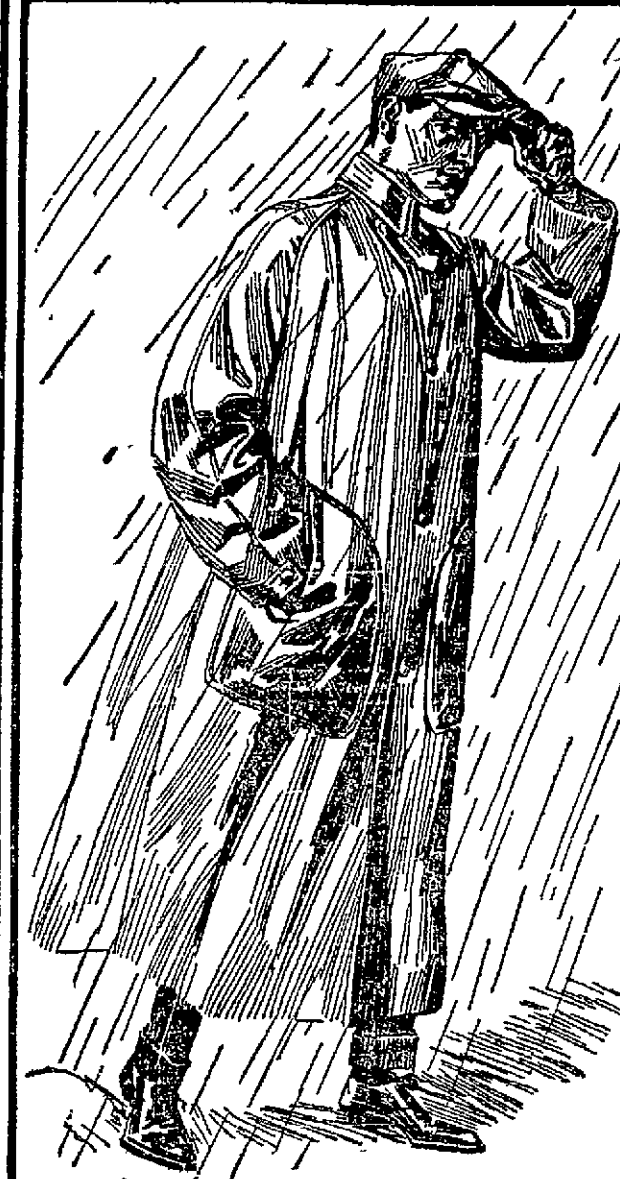

The attorney general holds that the law enacted by the legislature in the session of 1911, making it possible for elementary school trustees to elect teachers on and after June 1, applies as strongly to high school boards as to the elementary school boards.

A raincoat perfected

THIS coat combines all the essentials of a rain and storm protector with the style and swaggerness of a smart overcoat. It is the kind of raincoat men have long been looking for.

It is cut in the favored Raglan style—loose, full and gracefully draped—buttons up close at neck if desired—has long cuffs and large, roomy side patch pockets.

In addition to being a rain protector, it can be worn over an overcoat on cold stormy days, affords ample protection on cool summer evenings and is ideal to wear over evening clothes in the summer. It is an all-around handy garment that every man needs.

It is made from genuine Preisley Cravenette cloth and is tailored with the same care and skill that go into all Adler Collegian Clothes.

ARRESTS RESULT OF PICKETING ROW

A. W. Sefton, Tally Man and Another Jailed for Trouble.

A. W. Sefton, secretary of the Central Labor Council, caused the arrest of Jess Barnett, a tally man at Sixteenth and Broadway this afternoon, as the result of an altercation over picketing a cafeteria at that point and was himself arrested a moment later by Barnett. As a result of the trouble N. A. Primrose, an associate of Barnett, was arrested by Carl Keyser, a union man and Patrolman Reinhardt. Reinhardt was the arresting officer in the cases of Barnett, and Primrose as well. All three men, have been released on $25 each. The charges against Sefton and Primrose are disturbing the peace, while that against Barnett is malicious mischief.

Barred From Estate if They Become Pastors

BOULDER, Colo., April 12.—The grand nephews of John L. Church, a mining man who died here recently, will not share in his estate of $40,000, if any of them become ministers of the gospel. This was the annual stipulation in the will which has been filed for probate. The testator's own sons were cut off in favor of his grand nephews and grand nieces.

substance the same as the will filed at the dictation of Mr. Lloyd. I had no motive except to fool the aunt upstairs. I put it on the table long enough for her to see, so that she would know that her will was not all the go with Mrs. Edwin. Later in the evening Lloyd produced a will which we took to Kytha later. The expert said that it was a good sample. "If I have committed forgery I am here to take the punishment."

The statement that Kytha had been approached in the matter was denied some time ago by the expert.

Mrs. De Vine will be taken to San Quentin within the next few days and she will take up her quarters in the same institution as Mrs. Isabelle Martin. It is confirmed that there were two of the most difficult cases dealing with women prisoners that Alameda county has ever had to handle.

TAFT VICTORY IS PREDICTED

Brother of President Says the Campaign Against Him Is Prejudice.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—C. P. Taft, brother of President Taft, who was a guest at the White House today, gave out the following statement: "President Taft is absolutely certain of re-nomination, and he will be re-elected. Democrats everywhere admit that he is the only man they fear next November. If the attacks upon him were based upon faults of his administration, or on his conduct in office, it might be different, but it must be borne in mind, that only real opposition to him is founded on prejudice and appeals to passion—the most dangerous things to the future of this country since the Civil War."

MISS CLARA BARTON DIES AFTER ILLNESS OF YEAR

The late CLARA BARTON.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Miss Clara Barton, founder of the American Red Cross Society, died at her home in Glen Echo, Md., today. The cause was chronic pneumonia, with which she was stricken about a year ago. Her brother, Stephen Barton of Boston, was with her. Miss Barton was born at Oxford, Mass., in 1821.

Miss Barton had been confined to her home, "Red Cross," at Glen Echo since last fall, when she returned from a trip to New England. It was thought her trip was beneficial, but soon afterward she was taken seriously ill. She celebrated her 90th birthday anniversary December 25.

Miss Barton might properly be called the Florence Nightingale of America. Like her British prototype, her works of mercy were not confined to her native land, but were carried even into the eastern hemisphere.

She will be written down in history as the founder of the Red Cross in America, but her powerful personality also made an indelible impression on the international organization itself through her active participation in the periodical conference at Geneva, Carlsruhe, Rome, Vienna and St. Petersburg.

Miss Barton was 40 years old when first she turned her attention to the great works of humanity, which have made her name famous. The Red Cross was established in America in 1881 and Miss Barton was its president from that date until 1904. Before that time she had made a name for herself by her services on battlefields beginning in the Civil War and extending through the Franco-Prussian war.

Congress recognized her good offices in the first case by an appropriation of $15,000 to be disbursed by her in searching for missing men after the various battles of the war. Miss Barton's work became more extended with the organization of the American Red Cross and covered the new field of catastrophes in time of peace.

She distributed relief to the sufferers from the Johnstown flood and went to Russia in 1892 to carry food to the famine sufferers there. In the following year she was ministering to the destitute survivors of the tidal wave which struck South Carolina and Florida.

In 1896 she was aiding the Armenian families decimated by the Turks, and when yellow fever appeared among the American troops in Cuba following the battles around Santiago, it was Clara Barton who, at the request of President McKinley, organized field hospitals and personally spent her time on the battle lines.

Her last work of national prominence was in connection with the great Galveston flood relief in 1900. In 1904 the Red Cross was reorganized, President (then secretary) Taft being chosen as president and Miss Barton, then far advanced in age and somewhat broken in health from exposure and hardships, retired from active connection with the organization. She resided in the last seven years at her home at Glen Echo, Md., on the banks of the upper Potomac.

During her life time she received many decorations from foreign countries in recognition of her services to humanity, and her varied experiences have been recorded in permanent form in her liberal contributions to literature, mostly relative to the activities of the Red Cross.

ILLS OF BUSINESS MAN DISCUSSED

Physicians Fail to Agree as to Just What They Are.

Members of the medical profession failed to agree late yesterday on the witness stand as to just what it was that causes the ills of the average business man. Doctors A. S. Kelly, S. H. Buteau, Stanford, A. M. Smith and S. F. Meacham were called as witnesses in the damage case of David Craig, a Berkeley man who is suing the Oakland Traction company for $25,000 injuries alleged to have been sustained and resulting from a street car accident last May.

With the exception of Dr. Buteau, the other doctors were called by the prosecution. They testified that the plaintiff's condition was directly due to the accident. He is said at this time to be suffering from severe headache, an enlarged heart and exaggerated sensibility, also neurasthenia. Dr. Buteau, called by the defense, attributed Craig's sufferings to the hurry and worry of everyday life, which is seemingly an attribute of the American business man.

"This is an age of young men. The old ones are wearing out, and the lives of the average business man is constantly becoming shorter," said the witness. The case will be continued next Monday.

ONE DAY REMAINS TO GET ON REGISTER

Persons desirous of casting a ballot at the presidential primaries on May 14 who have not already placed their name on the great register, will have to get busy; for tomorrow is the last day that such registrations will count. County Clerk Cook announced today that the registration office would be kept open until midnight Saturday to give everyone an opportunity to register. Up to noon today there were more than 85,000 names on the register and it is expected that when the rolls close tomorrow night the number will have reached 85,000.

DEFENSE STARTED IN CONBOY CASE

Sensational Testimony Introduced in Close of the Prosecution.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Bringing forward an important bit of testimony as a climax to their case against former Captain of Police Michael J. Conboy, the prosecution closed in Superior Judge Sargent's court this morning, and the defense began their inning, and proceeded in their attempt to establish the innocence of the accused.

Detective Sergeant Thomas Murphy was the last witness for the state, and by him the district attorney succeeded in proving Conboy's own admission that he had fired at Bernard Lagan. Murphy stated that Conboy had told him and that he had incorporated in his report to the captain of detectives, "I was doing police duty when I shot Lagan." The cross-examination of the defense failed to shake this testimony, and they proceeded to call their first witness, Charles Baron, a watchman for Cleary's detective agency. Baron, claiming to be an eye-witness to the shooting, described the actions of the participants in the affray. He declared positively that Lagan had removed his coat, a fact which the witnesses of the prosecution had denied. This is important for the defendant, as it has always been the claim of Conboy that he shot in self defense, after he had been attacked. Lieutenant of Police Sylvester, who was a sergeant at the time of the shooting, and on duty in the district where the tragedy occurred, told of the arrest of Conboy and the circumstances surrounding his removal to the city prison.

Washtub Is Relaxation For Fatigued Artist

Edna Darch Declares That Even Grand Opera Stars May Find Rest in Work.

LOS ANGELES, April 12.—The wash tub and the ironing board furnish the most complete relaxation for the fatigued artist, according to Miss Edna Darch, a Los Angeles girl, who recently achieved fame as a grand opera star in the Imperial Opera in Berlin.

"It gives the kind of rest all artists are fond of, women especially," said Miss Darch, "and gives them new inspirations." Miss Darch returned home yesterday. She announced her engagement to W. H. McMurtrie, a real estate man of San Diego, but the wedding will not occur until June of next year.

OAKLAND PASTOR SHIES AT STAGE

Rev. Jerome Trivett to Enter Employ of Spring Valley Water Company.

According to latest reports Rev. Jerome Trivett, former pastor of the Church of the Advent of East Oakland, has accepted an engagement with the Spring Valley Water Company of San Francisco. Rumors to the effect that the retired clergyman, who recently resigned from the ministry, has signed a contract with a vaudeville circuit, was denied this morning by his wife, who laughed at the gossip. Parishioners of the fashionable congregation who had looked forward to his appearance upon the stage were disappointed when they learned that he had other plans.

Miss Millward Holden is the motif for the tea that is to be given this afternoon by Mrs. St. George Holden at her home on Filbert street. Among the well-known guests will be Mrs. Kirkham Wright, Mrs. Angus, Mrs. Harry Kimball, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. Edward Jordan, Mrs. Lane Leonard, Miss Angus and Miss Cole.

Good Used Pianos Better Than Cheap New Ones

Better values by far, more musical quality and more durability may be had in a GOOD STANDARD MADE PIANO FROM A WELL-KNOWN FACTORY than in commercial pianos at or near the same price.

Would you like a LUDWIG, KNABE, CONOVER, ESTEY, WEBER, STEINWAY, PACKARD or EMERSON that has come to us in trade for a Player Piano because no one could play upon it, at a price that is lower than ordinary commercial pianos? These and many other good pianos are being sold this week on the EASIEST POSSIBLE TERMS.

Every piano offered is a bargain of the highest order, and every one mentioned in the list following is here for your inspection. Among them are many beautiful Grands, a STEINWAY that could hardly be told from new; a beautiful HARDMAN in splendid mahogany; several others in grands, and a wonderful collection of uprights of almost every make.

One thing for you to remember is that these are REAL PIANO BARGAINS—not new pianos with sensational cuts in prices, but splendid used instruments at FAR LESS MONEY THAN THEY ARE ACTUALLY WORTH. Then, too, the TERMS ARE RIGHT and every piano bears our guarantee as to its quality—a guarantee that protects.

No prospective buyer who wishes to ECONOMIZE in the BUYING WILL MISS THE OPPORTUNITY. IT'S A SQUARE, LEGITIMATE MONEY-SAVING PROPOSITION.

MONSTER CAISSON LAUNCHED IN BAY

Gate to Be Towed to Honolulu for the Pearl Harbor Drydock.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—The largest caisson, or drydock gate, ever constructed was this morning successfully launched at the Union Iron Works and will be towed to Honolulu to be used for the Pearl harbor drydock.

When the huge bulk of 950 tons slid down the ways into the water without untoward incident, President J. A. McGraw and General Manager J. J. Ryan of the Union Iron Works were greatly relieved.

The caisson will be towed to Honolulu by the tug Hercules, starting Tuesday. Two men will have to be aboard the huge hull to keep her in trim and to maintain lights and attend to the fog horn.

The gate will swing to one of the world's largest drydocks at Pearl Harbor. It being the intention of the government to extend the length from 750 to 1000 feet in order to accommodate the largest vessel afloat or in contemplation.

The big caisson, which has been fourteen months building and cost about $130,000, is 126 feet long, 20 feet wide and has a depth of 43 feet. The valves will be operated by electricity.

Seely Slated To Take Place Of Haldane

RIGHT HON. J. E. B. SEELY.

LONDON, April 12.—It is understood that when Lord Haldane, minister of war of Great Britain, vacates his post, Right Honorable E. B. Seely will be his successor.

Seely is at present under secretary in the war office, and from his associations with the various war departments has become thoroughly familiar with the modus operandi of the new responsibilities which he will assume in the near future.

He is a son of Sir Charles Seely, a graduate of Cambridge University. For a time he was under secretary of state for the colonies previous to his becoming associated with the war department.

APOSTLE SPENDS VACATION HERE

Says He Is Taking Rest Because of Vision in Lejer.

KANSAS CITY, April 12.—"The Lord appeared to me in great glory and told me I ought to quit work for at least a year," said I. N. White, an apostle of the "Reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints," in a letter that was received by the general conference of the church at Independence, Mo., today.

Apostle White, who is one of the quorum of twelve, and has charge of a mission field covering several states, now is taking a rest at Oakland, Cal.

He wrote in the letter that he related the suggestions of his friends that he take a vacation, but that when the Lord commanded it, he obeyed.

"In obedience to this divine direction I ask that the authorities of the church assign me work that is light if I am given anything at all to do during the coming year," the letter concluded.

WILL SUE TO CONDEMN LAND FOR SCHOOLS

The first of a number of condemnation suits to be brought against property owners by the city of Oakland, to obtain land for school sites, was filed today by Assistant District Attorney Charles Beardsley. The defendant is Sarah Jane Fox Kelsey, and the parcel of land is located at East Fourteenth street and Sixty-sixth avenue.

WEDDED TO OWN SISTER; DIVORCED

Relationship Discovered After Two Years of Married Life.

CINCINNATI, April 12.—The strange story resulting in Joseph Ruch securing a divorce from his sister, Helen Hoffman Ruch, was related in the Solvency Court here today. The brother and sister were married October 25, 1910, neither at the time knowing of the blood relationship between them. The discovery of their relationship was disclosed a few weeks ago and the action for a divorce followed.

It was explained to the court that the mistake had been possible because of the fact that the mother, for a private reason, had hidden from the children the fact that they were brother and sister, allowing them to believe that the husband was only an adopted child. The husband was given the custody of the couple's two children.

The petition for divorce, filed by the husband, was on the final grounds of neglect. The divorce was granted on that ground to protect the young people, as far as possible in the record.

WIFE AND CHILDREN BEATEN, IS COMPLAINT

Josephine Lopez, of Pleasanton township, has complained in her suit for divorce that her husband, Frank Lopez, her husband, was in the habit of administering severe beating not only to herself but to her children. She said he was not particular who was around at the time, and often took off his belt and strapped the children with it. When she protested he turned upon her, struck her, and called her vile names, she further alleges.

ACCUSED OF GIVING AN IMMORAL SHOW

FRESNO, April 12.—Frank Wolf, manager of a local theater, is on trial today on the charge of aiding in the performance of an immoral show. Local police authorities testified that girls wearing lights and very abbreviated skirts went among men in the audience during the performance and that the men flocked to them and slapped them on the back. The courtroom was jammed with spectators, many women being among the auditors.

San Francisco Society

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Fruit blossoms and flowers will transform the ballroom of the Fairmont hotel into a spring garden for the San Francisco Society dance which takes place here tonight. This is the post-Lenten dance of the club and one of the last season and promises to be an affair of unusual gaiety. Arrangements are in charge of Charles A. Dilley and his competent committee.

Among the most popular girls in the club are Miss C. Schneider, Miss Irene Elliott, Miss B. Burling and Miss E. Shinn.

Tulips, crouches and dresses in every available hue were the decorations at the reception given yesterday by Mrs. Jonathan Swigert and her daughters, Mrs. James Snook and Mrs. J. J. Clayton.

Miss Virginia Gurney of Berkeley arrived in Norfolk, Virginia, in time to be maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Lucille Cook and Dr. Robert Hoyt, lieutenant-commander in the United States navy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Polhemus and their children are domiciled in a house in San Rafael, where they expect to spend the summer months.

Miss Josephine Redding, who, with her mother, Mrs. Joseph Redding, is going abroad in the near future, was the incentive for an informal little luncheon given yesterday by the Misses Ennie and Josephine Parrott at the Town and Country Club. Miss Inez Keeney and Mrs. Ward Barron were the others in the party.

The interim the gallant lieutenant and his charming bride-to-be will be entertained constantly.

Mr. James Otis leaves Sunday for Panama where he intends spending several weeks viewing the work on the canal. En route he will stop at Santa Barbara, where he will be joined by his daughter, the Misses Cora and Frederick Otis, who will accompany him on the trip.

The Junior Assembly will give its second dance tomorrow evening at the California club and the younger set are looking forward for a jolly good time. Among the patronesses are: Mrs. M. Koshland, Mrs. Henry Schlein, Mrs. J. Meyer, Mrs. J. Kohl, Mrs. N. Stern, Mrs. J. Rosenbaum and Mrs. S. Essinger.

Miss Florence Hopkins and her dance, Cheever Cowdin, will be honored at a dinner this evening at the Hotel St. Francis, when Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin will entertain in their honor.

Friends are congratulating Captain and Mrs. Conrad Babcock, because on their return this summer from abroad their home will again be among pleasant surroundings. They are to be stationed at West Point.

Mrs. Henry Livingstone and her daughter, Irene, have arrived from their home in Washington and are occupying apartments at the Stewart. Mr. Livingstone will join them later.

A "farmers' dinner" was the unique affair given last evening at the Hotel St. Francis by Reginald and Arthur Paget, the twin sons of Lady Paget.

Tiny cows and sheep browsed in among the valley hills and roses that made the table a bower of bloom, and the menu, written in the largon of the farmhand, were also suggestive of the ranch in Bishop, Nev. where the Paget heirs have made their home since coming into the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hays Smith chartered the party, at which were included Miss Inez Keeney, Miss Harriett Alexander, Miss Rose Natta, Miss Esther Denney and the Misses Von Bokalon.

coming over from Berkeley this week to take possession of the handsome residence they recently bought from Mrs. Wilson in California street.

Mrs. Wilson has already left her house and is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Orville Pratt. She has issued invitations for a bridge luncheon next Wednesday at which Mrs. Harold Sewall will be the guest of honor.

Mrs. William Vogel has bidden a number of friends to accept her hospitality at a luncheon which will be given on Saturday at the Bellevue Hotel. Covers will be laid for eight guests.

Miss Gladys Spiro gave a tea yesterday in honor of Mrs. Aron Kober who announced her engagement to Carl Kaufmann of Oakland. Guests from both sides of the bay called to offer their congratulations to the popular girl, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kober of Alameda. The hostess was assisted by Miss Doris Goldman in receiving her many friends.

Mrs. Harry Mandel will entertain at a bridge tea tomorrow afternoon at her home on Green street in honor of Mrs. S. Heiman, who is visiting here.

Mrs. George Harding left yesterday for Philadelphia after a month's stay here with her sister, Mrs. James Ward Keeney.

Mrs. Charles E. Green presided at an elaborate luncheon yesterday at the Hotel St. Francis, when a score of friends were bidden to meet her daughter-in-law-to-be, Miss Marie Louise Foster.

Besides Miss Foster, Mrs. Green's guests were Mrs. Charles J. Foster, Mrs. Sidney Cusling, Mrs. James Jenkins, Mrs. Edward Van Bergen, Mrs. Allen Green, Mrs. Arthur Green, Mrs. William Duncan, Miss Martha Foster, Miss Ruth Winslow, Miss Evelyn Barron, Miss Minna Van Bergen, Miss Miriam McNear, Miss Alice Ake, Miss Muriel Williams, Miss Dorothy Page, Miss Edith Love.

Mrs. Joseph Norris, who was summoned to Rome on account of the serious illness of her son, John McNeill, has said that his condition is greatly improved and relatives and friends at home are rejoicing in the good news.

Improving High Pressure System.

Work is under way for the partial conversion of the salt water high pressure system of the city fire department into a fresh water system. The change will entail purchasing water from the Peoples Water Company in place of pumping it free of charge from Lake Merritt, but it is estimated that it will work an actual saving to the city in the long run despite this added expense and that of the initial outlay of approximately $6000.

The mains of the salt water high pressure system have been carried almost throughout the business district of the city. Arrangements have been made for the equipment of two fire companies to be in readiness at all times to respond in case of fire by putting into use the high pressure system.

Yet the system, despite the rosy promises of Chief N. A. Ball is not the success that has been promised. It is brought into use in case of a small blaze only, or if it is used in case of an ordinary fire, the complaint is made after the fire that more damage has been done by the salt water than would be justified by the good accomplished.

The firemen hesitate to use the high pressure system on this account. The salt water destroys valuable goods in stores and business houses that would not be harmed if fresh water were used.

To remedy this condition the city council has authorized the construction of a fresh water pumping plant to provide a supply of fresh water for the high pressure system. The water will be pumped from the mains of the Peoples Water Company under a special arrangement with the company. With fresh water in the pipes, the high pressure system will be available at all times for small or large fires in the business district.

The plans have been so drawn that it will be possible to reconvert the fresh water system into a salt water system in case of a conflagration where a continuous heavy supply of water is required, by merely throwing over a lever that will start the pumps at work on the inexhaustible waters of the lake.

The improvement is one that might have been incorporated in the original plans. It is better late than never, and it will make the high pressure system of practical value instead of merely the result of a considerable outlay of public money.

Dr. Mary Walker's recovery is an argument for faith, stubbornness and trousers.

Political fight fans will concede that the bunk of San Juan hill "slugged 'em over the ropes" in Illinois. But at the same time they point out that the bout was only a training camp incident and they are willing to wager high that the victor of a preliminary will not be able to come back when the big fight is on.

Persians have started the Bahai movement—a dream of universal peace. It is understood that they would like to have just one good swat at Russia before universal disarmament.

The sum of $23,000,000 is estimated as the amount spent by the people of three American cities on theater-going in one year. Of that amount, New Yorkers spend $15,000,000, Chicago $5,000,000 and Philadelphia $3,000,000. Foreigners claim Americans take their amusements seriously. Who wouldn't when they cost $23,000,000?

Los Angeles' frantic call for chorus girls probably emanated from restaurant owners and garage men.

The movement which the local Young Women's Christian Association is formulating to secure funds for adequate quarters to house the institution deserves the heartiest support of the people of Oakland. The organization does a splendid work for the young women of the city, in spite of its very limited resources, and merits every aid which can be given to it to increase the scope of its activities. The young men of the city have their welfare considered in the Y. M. C. A. in a fine establishment. The young women deserve as much at least.

Dante, when he wrote the Divine Comedy, probably derived a good deal of amusement from the trick of putting the political leaders of his time in the Inferno, fitting them, with the care of an expert tailor, with appropriate punishments. What a lot of fun he would have had with T. R., had that gentleman lived in the Florence of Dante's time! Probably fitting the doughty Colonel with a gag would be the most fiendish punishment the Florentine could have devised.

Comparing Theodore Roosevelt with Pilate is a cruel slap at some one, and we're not sure it isn't Pilate.

Oakland Coming Into Her Own.

When cotton-tails capered about certain parts of Oakland which are now thickly settled with people and over land that is now estimated in value by the square foot, very few of the then inhabitants looked into the future far enough to profit by what a phenomenal growth of the city has brought within two or three decades. Hundreds of persons only middle aged look back what seems to be a few short years. They tell of the cow pastures and hunting grounds for boys that lay out along Telegraph avenue to the east and west. And even closer in to the present business center, opportunities presented themselves on every hand. But who believed that Oakland would ever be what it is today? It was about that time that valuable water front privileges were bartered away for less than the value of an old red school house.

Everything went in a sort of happy-go-lucky way in those days. But Oakland grew in spite of herself. Then there came a period about twenty-five years ago when the people awakened. They boosted Oakland and her opportunities. The city soon had 60,000 inhabitants and the boosters thought they were doing well. Wonderful projects were planned. A quarter of a century later dreams are beginning to be realized.

The most significant feature in the present situation is that the limit has not yet been reached. Oakland is just commencing its real growth. Its awakening is now a material fact and no dream. Opportunities, lost years ago, present themselves again, but in a rarefied form. Rabbit runs and cow pastures cannot be purchased for a song; the scale is somewhat higher. But on the other hand the wealth of the average person has greatly increased during the same years.

Anyone who thinks that the top notch has been reached at this time is a silurian of the purest type. And today there is no place for his ilk in this community.

Calamity of calamity! Ned Greenway can never dance again! What ever will San Francisco society, with a capital S, do now? What matters it if the crops are ruined and the country does go to the demijohn bow-wow politically? That is as nothing compared with this sad, sad tale of a fallen terpsichorean czar!

HARD AT WORK

—By THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE CARTOONIST

Nature and the Poet.

How seldom it is that we, in our every-day life, stop to consider the beauties of Nature; yet she is ever calling to us, but in a voice understood only by the few who have studied and communed with her. The daily necessities of life call forth our efforts in pursuits that lead us away from the better side of our existence; for there are two parts to Creation—man and Nature—useless, one without the other. Would there have been such a display of beauties, so minute in detail, so wonderful in all, had there been no human being to glorify them? Could man have existed through all the ages without the tender sympathies of Nature to touch his oftentimes hardened spirit and recall him to the purity of which she is an example?

Between man and Nature there is one strong tie—the poems and songs of those who interpret her for their less understanding fellowmen, whose voices arouse our sympathy and recall us to the paths of beauty from which we have strayed.

It is the child of Nature, the poet, who, appreciating her various moods, is capable of transforming them into a language which all may comprehend and of awakening in the less responsive heart a desire to learn more of the beautiful, which it has failed to perceive.

Many have observed the outward manifestations of Nature. They watch the change of seasons with interest. They behold the trees blossom forth in the spring and listen to the birds which gladden the hours with their song. They travel from city to city, from ocean to ocean, over rolling plains, beside picturesque rivers, gazing on the heights of mountains which tower in grandeur to the clouds above. They behold the waterfall, tumbling from its rocky crest to the dashing stream below. They follow it through the canyons, "rock-ribbed and ancient as the sun," through "vales stretching in pensive quietness between," and finally they behold the ever rolling sea, which Byron has addressed with these magnificent lines:

Roll on, thou deep and dark blue ocean, roll!

Ten thousand fleets sweep over thee in vain.

Man marks the earth with ruin, his control stops with the shore.

The ocean will still roll on and generation after generation will come and go, but it is the voice of the poet, the true lover of Nature, that will live through all the ages; for his view of life is from a higher standpoint than that upon which the masses tread. To him the most humble flower is as wonderful as the majestic mountains which others look upon with awe while they crush the modest poppy under foot. His imagination soars to the heights of truth to which the view of the multitude is obstructed by their indifferent ideas.

He pictures to the mind's eye scenes in faraway lands and leads the imagination through byways that otherwise would have been undiscovered. He makes the sounds of ancient battles ring in the ears of his readers; but his tenderest mission is the bringing of man and Nature into closer relationship. As the world goes on, these two are brought together and for the universal good, because he who holds in his heart a love for Nature, can have no room for the vice and hatred which is the result of the constant struggle in the daily affairs of life.

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

William Lichtenberg took the championship today at the annual shoot of the Alameda County Sportsmen's Club at the Oakland trotting track. T. B. Norton was the winner of the second prize, and A. F. Adams took third. C. E. Colwell won the twenty-six yard class.

Prof. William Carey Jones of the State University was today granted a leave of absence to travel in Europe. He plans an extended trip, and will make a special study of the municipal governments of European cities while away. His leave is for a year.

The university baseball team today won a game from the Laney team, an Oakland team, by a score of 10 to 2. The game was played on the college campus.

Rev. Benjamin Fay Mills will soon begin a series of evangelistic meetings here, according to the announcement made this afternoon by the committee from local churches appointed to arrange such an affair. The meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. and Rev. James Curry was chosen secretary. Rev. A. J. Rice presided at the meeting.

THE STUFF OF DREAMS

That a thing to be remarkable need not be of a rare occurrence finds ample confirmation in dreams, than which nothing is more common to human existence is more common or more wonderful. Some years ago a New Yorker dreamed that he had written a poem, and, waking, he wrote it down. It was pronounced excellent by competent judges. Afterward he was unable to make two lines rhyme. "Kubla Khan," one of the finest specimens of imaginative poetry in the English language, was composed by Coleridge during sleep.

A strange characteristic of dreams is the rapidity with which thought flash through the mind of the dreamer. Lord Holland, while listening to the reading of a friend, dropped to sleep and had a dream whose details it took him twenty minutes to write out. Yet he distinctly remembered the first part of one and the conclusion of the following sentence that his friend had read, so he could have been asleep but a few seconds. The poet Wordsworth, having returned from Europe, dreamed of re-visiting the trip almost exactly as he made it; only, on his imaginary voyage homeward he fell into the ocean. This casually waked him to find that he had slept not more than three minutes.

The most perplexing feature of dreams is the capriciousness of the mind as shown therein. It may have been busy during the day with thoughts of importance, but when it dreams it will seize on some trivial incident and allow it to shape its fancies. An English student of psychology once made an interesting experiment to ascertain whether an idea that absorbed the mind during the day would influence his dreams at night. He fixed his thoughts intently during the day upon the subject of polar bears. He shut himself in his room and read all the books of natural history he had which described the appearance and habits of these animals. He carefully excluded from his mind every other idea, and the last thing he remembered before he fell asleep at night was an immense bear crawling out of the water upon a cake of ice. But, instead of dreaming of bears, he dreamed that he was on board a sailing vessel on a whaling voyage. A whale was seen to blow. He entered the whaleboat with the crew and the duty of harpooning the monster fell to his lot. He grasped the harpoon and, just as the boat was gliding over the back of the whale he threw the implement with all his might. But at the same time he lost his balance and fell into the whale's mouth, and with a cry of horror he awoke.

For some time he was exceedingly puzzled to account for his dream, which seemed to have had no material part in his past consciousness from which it could have been fashioned. But after much thought he recollected that in one of the books he had read the day before there was a large picture of a group of polar bears disporting themselves on the ice, while at the four corners of the engraving there were similar sketches representing scenes in the Northern seas. One of these scenes was the picture of a whaling vessel with a "tribut boat" belted lowered from the davits. His eye must have been attracted to this picture, if only for a second, and in some mysterious way the dream was fashioned from these meager materials.—New York Tribune.

WITTY BITS

Straw votes, like other dreams, go by contraries. A glance at a map of North America shows how nicely Lower California would balance the Florida peninsula. Somehow or another, these accommodating floods come along just in time to help get a nice juicy appropriation. Bob La Follette having won Wisconsin, we shall not hear the startling political news that the Dutch have taken Holland.

A man really hates to buy a thing he can afford. It's the way of a girl to fall in love with a man first and then decide on his attractions. It may take a woman a week to pick out a piece of ribbon she wants, but she could rent ten houses while a man was finding the number of one—New York Press.

All men are born free and equal, but most women are slaves to fashion.

A little tip will often cure a waiter of deafness. Go slow at the start and save your speed for the finish. Put your worries in pawn, then proceed to lose the ticket. ## HIGH-O-ME

That's the Proper Way to Pronounce HYCMEI, the Famous Catarrh Remedy Made from Australian Eucalyptus and Other Antiseptics—Just Breathe It.

It Banishes
Catarrh

Getting rid of catarrh is an easy matter if you will only use a common sense method.

Germine cause catarrh. You know that, and you also know that in order to end catarrh you must destroy the germs. Sprays and douches will not kill the germs. Liquid cannot penetrate into the folds and crevices of the mucous membrane of the nose and throat. Neither can it reach the lungs or even the tubes that lead to the lungs.

In every HYCMEI outfit, which is sold by druggists everywhere, there is a bottle of antiseptic liquid that will kill catarrh germs.

Four a few drops of this liquid into the little hard rubber syringe which comes with the outfit and breathe this now antiseptic vaporized air over the membrane of the nose and throat infested with catarrh germs.

It's pleasant, soothing and healing. In this vaporized air, HYCMEI is really the only remedy known that can reach and destroy catarrh germs and end the misery and humiliation that catarrh causes. Catarrh outfit $1.00. Extra bottles of HYCMEI if needed cost 50 cents. Druggists everywhere sell HYCMEI. It is guaranteed not to contain cocaine, opium or other habit forming drugs.

Oakland Photo Theater

Norfolk, Va.—The schooner Joseph G. Ray sunk off Cape Charles and a message to navigation is destroyed by the U. S. revenue cutter Onondaga.

Dayton, Ohio—The Ohio Exhibitors' League meets and decides how the world should be operated.

Châlons-sur-Marne, France—Corporal Deschamps is condemned to twenty years hard labor for selling a military secret to a foreign power and suffers the infamy of military degradation before the entire garrison.

Hillsville, Va.—The courthouse has been in the limelight ever since the Allen gang shot up the court as sentence was pronounced on Floyd Allen. Here we see the exterior and interior of the courthouse and eight members of the jury. Dexter Goddard, clerk, Chilton, the juror, shot twice, Captain Selk of the detective force, with another member of the posse. The jail. The home of Sidney Allen, leader of the gang, for whose capture, dead or alive, a reward of $1000 was offered.

Newark, N. J.—A novel method is used to wreck the chimney of an abandoned factory. The stack measured 186 feet high and 28 feet in diameter.

In addition to these sensational novelties will be shown C. G. P. C. "Abraham's Sacrifice," a beautiful biblical picture, and an Edison drama, "Church and Country." In this splendid picture, Charles Ogle is featured. George Washington. The scenes are laid around the historical spot of Valley Forge while the soldiers are of the British and Continental armies. We also see John Brown as the "Old, Wise One" in "Captain Jack's Diplomacy," a Vitaphone comedy.

"The Last Rites of the Maine" at the Oakland Photo theater brought out thousands to witness this history making event. Special comment was made on the exceptional rendition of the music which was specially arranged to fit the impressive scenes. The show was so well liked that the management decided to get the solemnity and majesty of the occasion marking the burial of the Maine. For the benefit of those who were unfortunate enough to miss the opportunity of seeing this patriotic picture at the Oakland Photo theater, this film will be shown at the Lyric theater today only, in addition to the regular program.

AT THE LYRIC

WOULD FACILITATE
WORK ON HARBOR

Chamber of Commerce Plans to Secure Co-operation of Engineers.

To facilitate the opening of Oakland's inner harbor, the Chamber of Commerce is entering on a plan to secure co-operation between the United States engineers engaged in the work and representatives of the city engineer's force. It is hoped that by working together in portions of the water-front improvement, the front can be thrown open for us within a very short time.

"We want the advantages of the inner harbor at the earliest possible moment," Secretary A. Denison of the chamber stated this morning. "In Portland and other cities where the government and city engineers carry on a piece of work together, it has been found that the work is carried on more understandingly by both parties and to a speedy conclusion. Anything which can be done to facilitate the work should be pushed with energy."

FISHERMEN ABANDON HOTEL BUILDING

The police received word this morning that the Filipinos, Spaniards and Mexicans who had occupied the second floor of the hotel building, without the consent of the owner, have vacated the building without causing any trouble, and that the owner is now in charge. The men were fishermen formerly employed by the Alaska Packers, who had taken refuge in the building, and one of whose agents had made some arrangements about leasing a portion of the old hotel. The police were at first informed that the men were Industrial Workers of the World.

PROTEST AGAINST
CUT ON SUGAR

Republicans Appeal to Taft to Protect State's Beet Industry.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12—Fighting on behalf of the sugar beet growers of California, the Taft Republicans have appealed to President Taft to demonstrate its friendship for California again by standing between one of this state's principal industries and a disaster.

Insurgent allies to take the tariff off sugar has aroused the sugar beet men to an appreciation of their danger as keen as that of the citrus fruit men. The stand of California insurgents in congress has furnished the sugar beet and fruit men with concrete evidence of what insolvency means to them and to the industries of California.

The beet sugar men have appealed to the Taft Republicans for direct intervention with the President, and the Taft Republicans of California, acting through their chairman, Colonel Charles Milford Hammond, have asked President Taft to veto the Democratic-insurgent attack on one of California's chief industries, if the measure passes the senate.

Colonel Hammond sent the following telegram to President Taft yesterday: San Francisco, April 11, 1912. Hon. William Howard Taft. The Taft Republicans of California, 125,000 in number, have the honor to hand the campaign for the re-election

TWO PRINCES TO VISIT AMERICA

German Warships to Call at Atlantic Ports in May.

BERLIN, April 12—The final position of the German fleet division to visit America to return the visit of the United States Atlantic fleet last year, has been determined upon by the German admiralty. It will include the protected cruiser, Moltke, Captain Ritter von Mann, after von Tschier, the protected cruiser, Stein, Captain von Kroszner, and the protested cruiser, Thetis, Captain von Bohm. The rear admiral who is to be in command of the division has not yet been selected.

The warships will call early in May and return to Germany in June. The officers include Lieutenant Prince Henry of Reuss and Lieutenant Prince Christian of Hessen-Philippsthal-Barchfeld. Prince Adalbert of Prussia, son of the Emperor, will not go to America.

ASKED TO JOIN FREE TOLL WAR

National Rivers and Harbors' Congress Heads Fight for Shipping.

Calling for the establishment of free tolls on coastwise American vessels passing through the Panama canal and for provisions which will prevent the alleged throttling of this commerce by the trans-continental railroads, the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, with headquarters in Washington, D. C., has asked the Chamber of Commerce to aid in the fight.

The congress, of which Joseph B. Ransdell is president and S. A. Thompson secretary, has framed the following four questions for consideration as being the debatable points in the Adamson and Martin bills in the House of Representatives which will legislate in the matter.

"Shall we charge our own ships carrying our own coastwise commerce through the Panama canal the same tolls as are charged to the ships of foreign nations?"

"Shall tolls be charged on all the waterways and harbors of the United States?"

"Shall the trans-continental railroads be allowed to throttle the development of coastwise commerce through the Panama canal?"

"Shall the railroads of the United States be required to give to the vessels engaged in the lake, river or coastwise trade treatment as favorable in all respects as they give to foreign vessels engaged in foreign trade?"

The congress asks that provisions of the two bills requiring American ships carrying coastwise commerce to pay the same tolls as foreign ships be abrogated, and that this be done by the advocacy of the following three points:

"The passage of Section 11 of the Adamson bill, so that the relations between carriers by water and carriers by rail may be established on a proper basis."

"The amendment of Section 5 of that bill, so that preferential treatment may be accorded to American vessels of commerce, or, at the least, to those engaged in the coastwise trade."

"The defeat of that portion of the Martin bill which proposes to impose tolls for the use of all American waterways and harbors."

"The officials of the congress ask that all commercial bodies throughout the country address their representatives in Congress on the points touched in the communication."

TWO DEPORTED AS RESULT OF ROW

Canadian and Britisher to Be Sent Out of the Country.

SAN DIEGO, April 12.—The immigration authorities today deported Thomas Bowling, a native of Canada, and Arthur Prachen, a native of England. Both were accused by the police of being alien anarchists.

Investigation by the federal authorities led to the discovery that both men refused to recognize the United States government or to respect the flag. They were arrested as Industrial Workers of the World.

It was also discovered that Bowling was admitted to this country without proper inspection. He will be taken to Victoria, B. C. Prachen will be taken to Ellis Island, N. Y., for deportation to England.

Bowling and Prachen came to San Diego at the beginning of the recent Industrial Workers outbreak.

SNOW FALLS IN SOUTH OF STATE

Storm Covers Wide Section; San Diego in Midst of Rainstorm.

SAN DIEGO, April 12.—Eleven inches of snow at Cuyamaca, fifty miles east of San Diego, and 10 inches at Warner's Springs, and a snowstorm today, is the result of a disturbance that began in San Diego county yesterday morning. At Morena Dam, southeast of San Diego, it was snowing hard this morning.

The rainfall in San Diego since yesterday morning has amounted to 1.31 inches, making a total for the season of 10.25 inches. This is about normal.

IRELAND AND THE IRISH TO BE TOPIC OF TALK

ALAMEDA, April 12.—Before the Unitarian club of this city next Wednesday night, Rev. F. W. Clappett, D. D., will deliver an address on Ireland and the Irish. Rev. Clappett has a large collection of beautiful lantern slides, with which the lecture will be illustrated.

Dr. Clappett is one who can speak on Ireland and the Irish from intimate acquaintance. His knowledge of the political features and social characteristics of the people has been gained through seasons of intimate contact.

Much of the beautiful scenery of the Emerald Isle for which it is noted and has been made famous in song and story will be depicted in the splendid collection of slides to be presented.

The evening will be an ordinary night for members and smoking will be permitted. A musical program has been arranged.

On the evening of May 1, Professor H. Morse Stephens will lecture on the history of the newspaper. May 15 will be women's night and the address on "Early California" will be by Charles R. Turner.

WAR DEPARTMENT TO HOLD EXTENSIVE TESTS

LA CROSSE, Wis., April 12.—To test the new military equipment, organization and infantry drill regulations, companies of three regiments of the United States army are to be brought together at Sparta, Wis., according to an announcement today by authority of the war department. Next month a provisional regiment is to be organized from companies in the Fourth, Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth Infantry. It will consist of 12 companies of 150 men each, one machine gun company of 65 men, one band of 28 men, and a detachment of 30 men and 17 mounted scouts.

The troops will assemble at Duquesne, Pa. and march to Sparta. The march will be made to study the new equipment and several experimental outfits will be tried out.

Society Girl Elopes With Young Broker

Miss Dorothea Waters Weds Galins Despite Opposition of Family.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The elopement of Miss Dorothea Waters, prominent society in New York City and Philadelphia, and Benjamin Galins, a young broker, has just become known here through letters written by the couple on their honeymoon trip. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Waters and a sister of the Baroness Jacques de St. Marc de Nio.

The marriage of the two has been opposed by the bride's parents and it is supposed she was sent abroad this winter to avoid a continuation of the romance. She returned to New York last Tuesday and was married on the following day.

NATIONAL DRAINAGE CONGRESS IN SESSION

NEW ORLEANS, April 12.—Delegates to the second annual convention of the National Drainage Congress are here today with a long program before them. Governor Sanders of Louisiana was the first speaker. The subject was "roads dependent on drainage."

DRINK HABIT

Score of Conspirators Executed in China

NANKING, April 12.—Twenty persons were arrested today and immediately beheaded. They were charged with complicity in a plot to dynamite the yamen and kill Huangsing, who has been put in control of the Nanking sphere.

Papers found proved that the plotters were agents of the Manchus, who are offering big rewards for the assassination of President Yuan Shai Kai, Dr. Sun Yat Sen, General Li Yuan Heng, Vice-President Huangsing and other prominent Republicans.

NOTED EDUCATOR DIES AT HOME IN VERMONT

MIDDLEBURY, Vt., April 12.—Professor Walter B. Howard, first dean of Middlebury college, died at his home here today, aged 63 years. Professor Howard served as United States consul at Ontario, Ont., and Cardiff, Wales, and was a member of the Vermont senate in 1882.

TWO-YEAR-OLD GIRL DIES

INDIGESTION IS ENDED FOREVER

No Heartburn, Gas, Dyspepsia or Sourness Five Minutes Later.

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapiesin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you can eat.

Eat what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of indigestion or that you will be bothered with sour risings, belching, gas on stomach, heartburn, headaches from stomach, nausea, bad breath, water brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach disorder you can get relief within five minutes.

If you will get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there would be no indigestion or sleepless night or headache or stomach misery all the next day; and, besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh.

Pape's Diapiesin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of indigestion or dyspepsia. There is nothing better for gas on the stomach or sour odors from the stomach or to cure a stomach headache.

You couldn't keep a handkerchief or more useful article in the house.

EXERCISES WILL BE ELABORATE

St. Mary's College Preparing Ceremonies for End of Term.

Elaborate ceremonies will mark the closing of the academic department of St. Mary's college, preparations already being under way for the exercises, to take place on June 20 in the alumni gymnasium of the Oakland institution. The arrangements are being made under the direction of Brother Vincent, head of the department. A five-act drama will be presented, in connection with a lengthy program of literary and musical numbers.

Among those who have been assigned parts are Charles Cedit, Walter Sweeney, Howard Magee, Earl Chiles, Harry Costa, Edmund McNamee, Robert Selmon, Merton Henley, John Fleming and E. Dyer. The Kappa Gamma, the debating society in the high school department of St. Mary's, will give their second entertainment in the college gymnasium on the evening of Friday, April 19th. Two original sketches will be presented, the youthful thespians being coached under the supervision of Rev. Brother James, an assistant in the department. Alexander McLean, president of the society, will act as stage manager.

SAYS CLERGY SUFFERS FROM HIGH PRICE ERA

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., April 12.—That the clergy has suffered more severely than any other class from the increased cost of living is the statement made by the Methodist conference here in a resolution requesting the appointment of a commission to present the need of larger salaries to church members throughout this section.

Many churches, it is stated, have not raised their pastors' salaries in twenty years, although the cost of living has doubled in that time.

TAX LAWS OF STATE ARE DECLARED AT FAULT

Alexander Brown Suggests That Constitution Be Amended.

ASSOCIATION WORKS TO SECURE CHANGES

Mayor Hugh Craig Tells How Assessment Was Made in Piedmont.

Methods of state taxation and revenue, with suggestions for their reform, were discussed by Alexander Brown vice-president and general manager of the State Tax association before the Alameda County Civic association, last night. Brown who was for 12 years president of the State Board of Equalization, outlined the existing system in detail, after which he touched upon the changes for betterment proposed by the State Tax association.

"The system of revenue and taxation in this State," Brown declared "is one of the most complex systems in existence and needs reformation all along the line. The State association is working to remedy all the conditions at fault, whether having to do with unequal valuations or the extravagant expenditures of money by city and county officials."

LOW VALUATION
"The State constitution adopted in 1879 calls for all assessors to make assessments at the full value of all property. This has never been done. Instead, the valuation placed has seldom been more than 40 cents on the dollar. The result has been one of the greatest stone walls in California, preventing a very low valuation with the necessary high tax rate. This has meant the keeping out of many prospective investors."

"Another fault has been in the employment of deputies not fully qualified. This has not been the fault of the individual assessors but of the laws which regulate the employment of deputies and which do not allow sufficient money to hire competent men."

CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGE.
"It is the present system in the main which is at fault. It needs thorough investigation and the passage of such laws as will remedy the existing defects. The Commonwealth club of San Francisco is working for home rule for the counties in the matter of raising and expending county funds and an amendment to the State constitution allowing this will probably be presented to the voters of the State at the next general election. The matter can only be remedied by changing the constitution."

FORMER COLLEGE MEN TO ORGANIZE

Santa Clara Alumni to Band Together All Over the State.

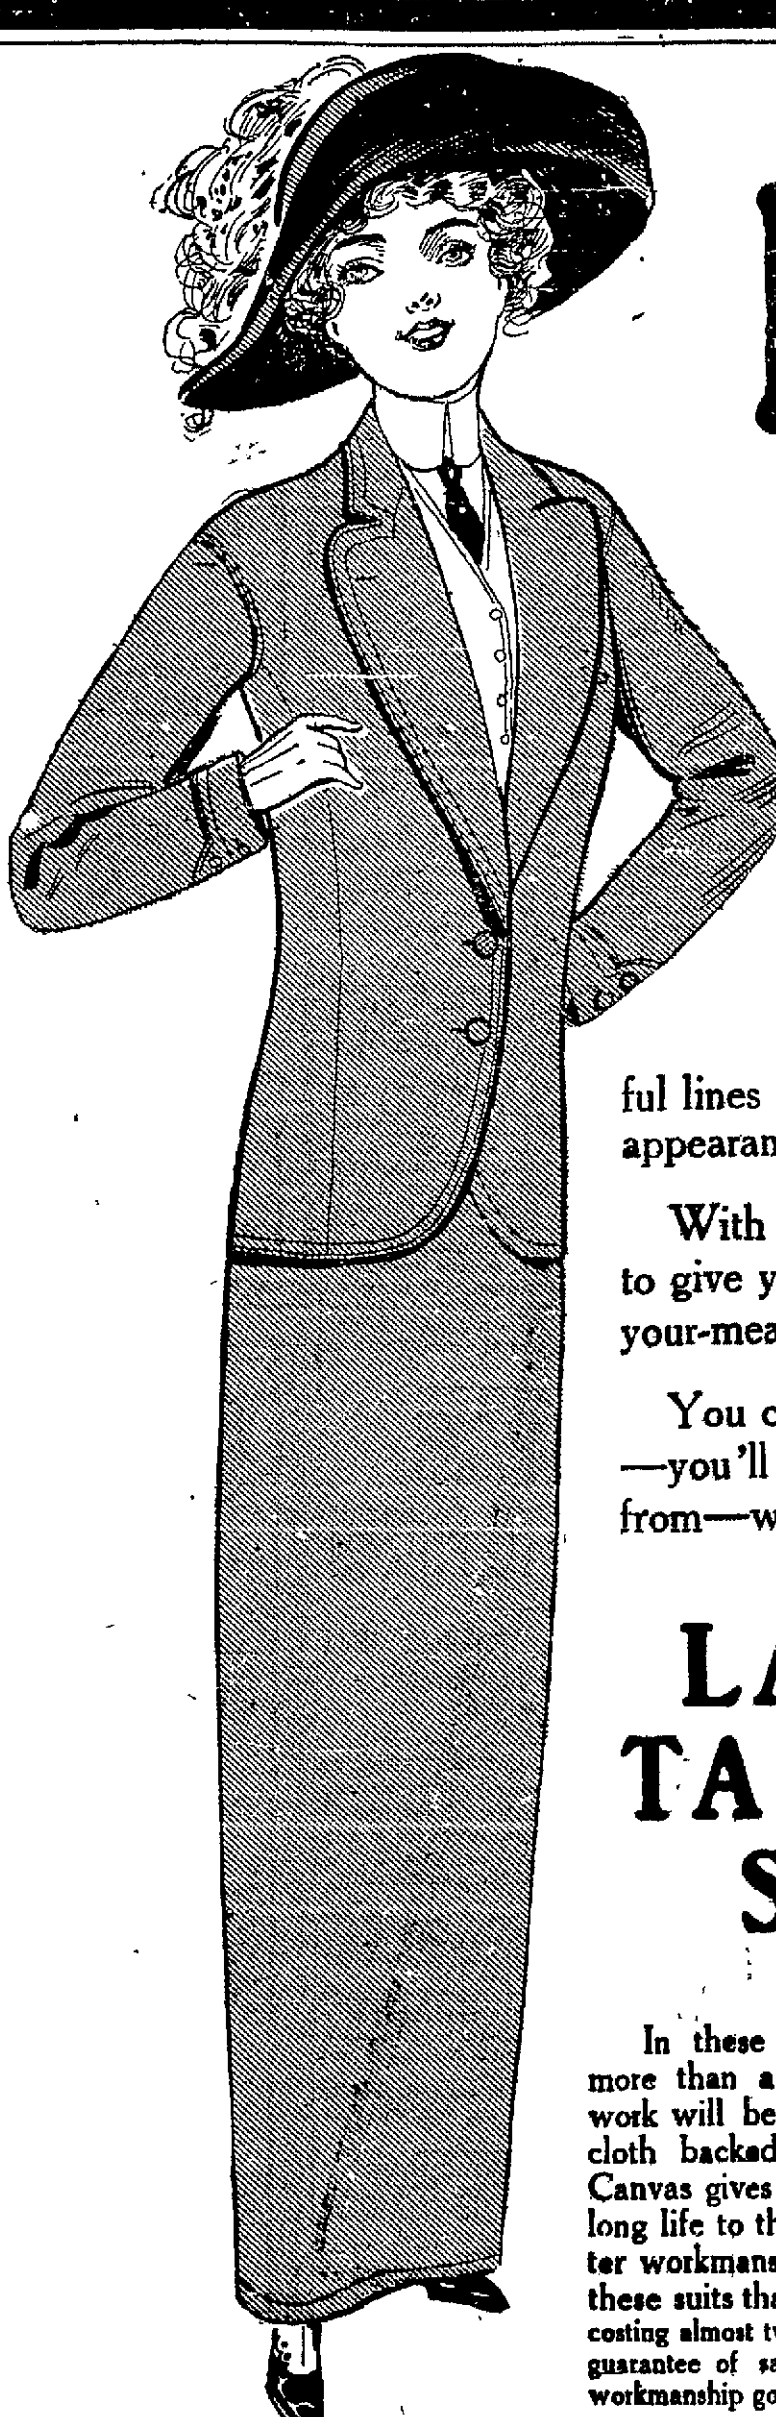

On Wednesday evening a local Santa Clara College Alumni Association was organized in San Jose at a meeting called by the president of the college, Rev. James P. Morrissey, to which a large number of former students responded, and enthusiastically joined in the project. It is the purpose to establish similar organizations all over the state, and this evening a meeting will be held at the office of Otto D. Stoesel, Watsonville, to bring about a reunion of former Santa Clara College students and form an association in that locality.

Those interested are anxious that it should be understood throughout that in order to join an alumni association it is not necessary to be a graduate or a degree man. One year's attendance and good standing will suffice, and everybody enjoying these privileges is urged to join. Now that the oldest college on this side of the Rockies is about to be declared a university, everybody eligible should be proud of joining.

On June 16 a grand celebration will be held at Santa Clara, when two of the buildings recently erected will be dedicated, and it was the happy thought of Father Morrissey to take up the work of organizing these clubs, so as to create as far as possible a general interest in this event, which is being planned on a mammoth scale.

HAVE YOUR TICKET READ "BURLINGTON"

To the East at Special Rates

When you plan your Eastern tour at the attractive excursion fares to Eastern cities, you will probably desire to visit a number of these in one direction or the other. If you will see that your ticket reads "Burlington" you will have such a choice of Burlington through routes to the East as to include more of the important cities in the Mississippi Valley than you can reach via any other one railroad.

NOTE WHERE BURLINGTON TRAINS RUN:

Denver, Omaha, Chicago
Denver, St. Joseph, St. Louis
Denver, Kansas City, St. Paul, Chicago
Kansas City, St. Louis

It requires an extensive combination of railroads east of the mountains to provide the train service that the Burlington maintains between these cities.

CONNECTICUT CITY HAS DESTRUCTIVE BLAZE

EAST HARTFORD, Conn., April 12.—Fifteen buildings were wiped out, seventy-five families made homeless and property worth $200,000 destroyed here early today by a fire which started in the Cairns Wood-working Company's mill and spread rapidly in all directions. The flames, discovered shortly after midnight, were under control at 4 o'clock. The local department was unable to cope with the blaze and help was summoned from Hartford almost as soon as the first alarm was sounded. An explosion of some kind started the fire.

IS TERRIBLY BURNED WHEN RESCUES DOGS

NELSON, B. C., April 12.—With his body terribly burned while rescuing his two dogs from a burning cabin, J. H. McDonald, manager of the British Empire Mining company, limited, near Fruitvale, wandered for hours through the snow before he found a prospector's cabin, where his injuries were dressed. McDonald was awakened at midnight by a noise which aroused his cabin, he made his way outside in safety, but remembering that his two dogs were shut in another room of the cabin, he rushed back into the burning building and succeeded in throwing both dogs through a window just before the roof crashed in. McDonald was clad only in the charred fragments of his underclothing and suffered severely from exposure.

STEALS GOLD PIECE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—A $250 gold piece was the only thing taken by a burglar who entered the home of Mrs. Rodgers Gardner, 2973 Pacific avenue, in the exclusive residential section of the city.

AVALANCHE HALTS WASHINGTON TRAIN

ELLENBURG, Wash., April 12.—Barely five minutes before the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound "Olympian" train from Chicago was due to reach the point, an avalanche swept down the mountain between Lacopia and Rockdale yesterday and interrupted traffic by completely burying the tracks beneath a heaped and damming a creek so as to cause a miniature flood. The engineer of the train saw the obstruction and brought his train to a standstill at a safe distance. The train backed to Easton, where it switched to the Northern Pacific and continued to Seattle over that road.

THE FIRST GRAY HAIR SIGN OF AGE. DON'T LOOK OLD BEFORE YOUR TIME

Easy Way to Preserve Natural Color of the Hair and Make it Grow.

A harmless remedy, made from common garden sage, quickly restores gray hair to natural color. The care of the hair, to prevent it from losing its color and luster, is just as important as to care for teeth to keep them from discoloring. Why spend money for cosmetics and creams to improve the complexion, and yet neglect your hair, when gray hair is even more conspicuous and suggestive of age than wrinkles or a poor complexion? Of the two, it is easier to preserve the natural color and beauty of the hair than it is to have a good complexion.

All that is necessary is the occasional use of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of common garden Sage and Sulphur, combined with other valuable remedies for dry, harsh, faded hair, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. After a few applications of this simple, harmless remedy, your hair will gradually be restored to its natural color, in a short time the dandruff will be removed, and your hair will no longer come out but will start to grow as Nature intended it should.

NEW COLOSSUS OF SEA PLANNED

Smaller Liners, Replaced by Giants, to Enter San Francisco Bay.

NEW YORK, April 13.—After the Hamburg-American line had announced the building of a ship, the Imperator, of greater dimensions than the gigantic Olympic of the White Star line, the German company began planning a still bigger stouter vessel, the Aquitania. The Imperator is designed to be 900 feet long and to measure 50,000 tons gross, and the Aquitania while no longer, will be of greater tonnage.

Shipping folk have been waiting to hear what the North German Lloyd was going to do. They heard when a cable came to Oelrichs & Co., general agents of the line in this country, saying that a new colossus had been ordered from the Schichau's Shipbuilding company of Dantzig, and that the ship would be completed not later than August, 1914. Her tonnage was 50,000 tons. The new ship will cost $10,000,000. One of her features will be the substitution of bedsteads for berths in all rooms.

Other ships of similar tonnage, or perhaps larger, will, it is said, follow the unchristianized vessel. This naturally inspires the question as to the destination of the ships of the North German Lloyd fleet like the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse and others of somewhat less speed still in the Atlantic service. The probability is, a German steamship men said, that the Bremen, San Francisco and the Far East by way of the Panama canal.

Philip Heintken, head of the North German Lloyd company, was here several months ago and spent most of his time looking over facilities for docking ships in the Pacific coast and inspecting the Panama canal. The company has announced that it will establish a service between Havre and the Pacific by way of the canal.

CORROBORATE REPORT.

MOBILE, Ala., April 12.—Corroboration of the report of the destruction of Chiriqui Peak, near Bocas Del Toro, Panama, was brought to Mobile on the Norwegian steamer Origen. Captain Wang and other officers of the vessel tell of steaming through the warm brown water when passing through the Yucatan channel. They believe the phenomenon was caused by a submarine disturbance.

Members of the crew are believed to have been told by the officers said, but no true estimate of the damage to life and property had been made at the time the Origen left for Mobile by way of the city of Panama.

Captain Wang said he believed that a volcano under the sea had been discovered in the Yucatan channel.

GREATEST TRIUMPH OF HER CAREER IS SCORED BY BERNHARDT

Great Actress, at Age of 69, Captivates Audience in Own Theater.

LONDON, April 12.—Tonight Sarah Bernhardt earned one of the greatest, most remarkable and best deserved triumphs of her long career. She appeared at her own theater, for the first time, in the title part of Emile Moreau's latest play, "Le Reine Elizabeth."

By the miracle of her art, by the prodigies of her will, her dramatic insight, at the age of 69, this incomparable actress conquered the difficulties of the most trying role, showing herself, now as a patriotic heroine, now as a loving woman, and, later as an avenging spirit, and at the very end as a distracted, dying, but indomitable queen.

After each of the four acts the house cheered her to the echo, recalling her a dozen times and raining flowers at her feet.

The play is woven about the love of Essex and Elizabeth. In the opening act Elizabeth discovers that Essex has betrayed her for Lady Howard, her confidant.

The third act shows how, believing it her duty, Elizabeth permits Essex to be executed, because he has not sent her the ring she gave him, promising that if she received it she would pardon him.

In the last act, when she learns that the ring was sent, but never delivered, the queen dies royally, falling face forward from a throne to a couch below.

At the close of the second act Miss Bernhardt moved many to tears. In the third act she completely transformed herself, changing her voice, her looks and almost her appearance.

Returns Gems

PALO ALTO, April 12.—Mrs. E. M. Davis of 323 Waverly avenue, who was recently robbed of several hundred dollars' worth of diamonds by a porch climber, was called to a couch below her home Tuesday evening by an individual in a long black overcoat, seemingly well-dressed, who presented her with a pasteboard box wrapped in a newspaper.

"Here are your diamonds, Madam," said the stranger, and disappeared swiftly.

Mrs. Davis took the box into the dining-room, where it was opened. Each article that had been taken from her, including a beautiful diamond sunburst and several valuable rings, lay sparkling in her hand.

The inexplicable return of the purloined jewels, coupled with the recent return of a railroad commuter's suitcase from San Francisco to another Palo Alto woman whose home was robbed last week, has completely bewildered the residents of the college city. Who is the mysterious Mr. Raffles? Is he a practical joker, a burglar with a conscience, or someone who possesses a dual personality with conflicting good and evil emotions? This is the question now puzzling Chief of Police C. F. Noble and the townspeople.

Suffragette Wedding

PORTLAND, Ore., April 12.—A suffragette wedding, the first this city has known, ended a short and romantic courtship last Saturday night. Details of the nuptials remained secret until today.

The room where the wedding was solemnized was decorated with yellow, the suffrage color, the bridegroom wore a "votes or women" button, the witnesses were suffragettes, and the wedding was performed by the president of the state central committee of the Oregon Equal Suffrage Association. To cap the climax the word "obey" was omitted by the bride.

Volney Driver, president of the Woman's Development League, was the bridegroom, and the bride was Miss Viva Scogdell, a school teacher of Eastern Oregon.

Loses Children

FLORENCE, Italy, April 12.—After a vain attempt to secure about a reconciliation between Enrico Toselli, the pianist, and his wife, who was formerly the crown princess Louise of Saxony, the courts awarded the custody of their child, Philibert, to the father. The mother, or up to a short time ago had the child with her, but the father kidnapped it and a legal battle has been going on ever since for its possession.

This decision leaves the mother of seven children without one of them to care for. She left the child behind when she eloped from Saxony with Andre Glion, her tutor, and now the Toselli child goes to the father.

Chinese Are Guests

PORTLAND, Ore., April 12.—Seated side by side with their American sisters, many of them prominent society women, seven Chinese women were guests at a woman's suffrage banquet in the Portland hotel. The banquet was given in honor of Mrs. L. Reine Helen Baker, suffrage leader, but the Chinese were the center of attraction.

It developed at the dinner that the Portland Chinese women have a suffrage organization of their own, and its president, Mrs. L. Reine Helen Baker, a Chinese physician, spoke at length to the diners. All of the Chinese women were dressed in smart American gowns.

WOULD PROSECUTE POET FOR "SEDITION" VERSE

LONDON, April 12.—J. Martin, M. P., yesterday gave notice that he will ask the attorney-general if he intends to prosecute Rudyard Kipling for the offense of sedition growing out of his verses entitled "Ulster" and whether he intends to prosecute the publishers of the verses and the printer who set the type.

The poem was a bitter denunciation of home rule upholding Ulster's opposition to the measure. The reward for Ulster's faith was pictured as: "To murder done by night. To treason taught by day. To folly, sloth and spite. And we are thrust away."

Martin declared Kipling was clearly guilty of sedition, as those who have any part in giving publicity to the verses.

MIND EXERCISE

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright, 1912, Lillian Russell.)

PROF. WALTER DILL SCOTT of the Northwestern University has proved that "the brain can stand the strain of persistent work better than the muscles of the body," and has arrived at the conclusion "that it is even more important for the mind to be kept in constant exercise than the body." He also finds that "the rate of increase of mental strength depends on the novelty of the work, the simplicity of the work and the organization of the habits." There is nothing more ruinous to ambition, health and life than the persistent grind of one kind of work, or one direction of thought. The cells of the brain are divided into different departments. There is a joy department, a sorrow department, a work department and a play department.

The overworking of one of these departments or cells will cause that section to become abnormal to the weakening of the other cells. When a man or woman works continually at one idea and allows his or her brains no let-up the joy and pleasure cells lie dormant for want of exercise and they grow to see only the one side of life—the working side. The rule works all ways. Too much pleasure and amusement satiates the joy cells and incapacitates man for brain work.

Persons who live for pleasure alone become so trivial in thought that their minds lose strength and cannot work except for their own pleasure. The persistent worry of illness devastates the brain cells almost entirely. Women or men who work hard with their brains should take relaxation in the absolutely opposite manner. Forget work entirely for a month at a time and travel or work at manual labor. A great lawyer explained his theory to me in this way: He works hard during the winter months, using his brains to the limit of endurance. Then he takes a pleasure trip, never thinking of business for a month or two, resting up his work cells for the winter campaign.

But we cannot all recuperate in that way, so we should do our brain work and relaxations alternately. Those who use their brains for day work should relax in the evening, leave business at the office and pick it up the next day where they left it off the night before. Those who use their brains at night should relax them in the day. The business man who carries his work around with him will use up his most important asset too quickly, and the spontaneous buoyancy of thought required for big efforts will be dulled by overwork and will be embarrassingly useless in a short space of time. Remember, just as a trainer of athletes works the physical body and then rests it, so must the brain be respected.

GETS MARRIED IN FIRST LONG PANTS

Youngsters 16 and 17 Elope; to Live on $35 Per Month.

ST. LOUIS, April 12.—Emmet Collard, 16 years old, wearing his first pair of long trousers, outwitted his six sisters and three policemen, who are members of the family, when he eloped to East St. Louis with Ernestine Duncan, 17, and was married by Magistrate Williams.

The boy and girl were neighbors. Emmet living with a sister at 5603B North Market street, and Ernestine with her parents at 1541 Spaulding avenue. They were still at their separate abodes Thursday, but both say they are going to house-keeping soon.

Ernestine says she can cook and keep house. Both admit it was the bright silk ties which Ernestine crocheted for Emmet that won his heart.

THREE RELATIVES ARE POLICEMEN.

Emmet is the telephone operator at the Deer Street Police Station. Police Sergeant William E. Harrison, formerly connected with the Excelsior Commission-er's office, and Patrolman G. L. Lake are married to his sisters. An older brother, Oscar Collard, is also a patrolman.

Emmet was the "baby" of the Collard family, and presents from out-of-town members of the family still come to the home of his sister, Mrs. Grace Lake, "for baby." Mrs. Lake referred to this in telling a reporter how Emmet escaped her eye and was married.

"I was married myself when I was only 16, but I married a grown-up man," said Mrs. Lake. "So I was not surprised when Emmet asked me Saturday."

"Grace, how did you manage to get married when you were only 16 years old?"

"I told him it was easy, that we had gone to East St. Louis, and that we didn't have the least trouble. I thought no more about it."

GIRL'S FATHER ANGRY AT FIRST.

"Then someone saw the license in the Post-Dispatch. Ernestine's father was very angry at first and Ernestine had to go to a neighbor's house for one day and then the father relented and we all decided to help them out as best we could."

Mrs. Collard told a reporter that the license clerk looked at them "queer" when they told him they were of age but that they didn't have any real life. Scully getting married. The motorman on the street car going across the bridge told them how to get the license. She says she has no fear they will be able to get along all right on Emmet's salary of $35 a month.

SEARCH IN VAIN FOR MURDERER OF CHINESE

WITNESSES TO CRIME FLEE IN HASTE

Berkeley Laundryman Is the Latest Victim of the Tong War.

Police Hold Theory That the Slayer Killed Wrong Man by Mistake.

BERKELEY, April 12.—Whether the murder last night of Leong Tue, Chinese laundryman at 2030 Blake street, was a result of the war between the Suey Sing and Hop Sing Tong is a question Chief of Police Vollmer is unable to answer this morning. If it was, then Leong Tue died for some one else. He was not a member of the Suey Sing or any other Tong, and if he was shot as a Tong man and by a Tong man, he must have been mistaken for some one else.

This morning the policemen detailed on the case found a revolver about a block from the scene of last night's shooting. Five shots had been fired from it. An investigation at the morgue showed three of these had entered Tue's body. Fingerprint experts went to work with the revolver today.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

The shooting took place about nine o'clock last night. With other employees of the laundry Tue was at work at his ironing board, just inside the street door. Without warning the door was burst open and a tall Chinese in American clothes, unknown to any of the workmen in the place, entered. He turned to where Tue was working and fired directly at him five times. Tue fell without a word, dying almost instantly.

The other Chinese in the place fled by a rear door to the street the moment the shooting commenced. They were unable to give a description of the murderer except that he was about 35 years of age, smooth shaven and dressed in American garb. Their descriptions of his height varied, though most of them agreed he was tall.

NO TRACE OF MURDERER.

Several of the fugitive laundrymen communicated at once with the police. "Passing cars were searched by the patrolmen detailed to the scene and officers on other beats were notified of the crime. No trace of the murderer was found then or today. The Hop Sing and Suey Sing Tong have been at deadly strife for some weeks, recent crimes being attributed to their gunmen in both Oakland and San Francisco. It is believed that one or two of Leong Tue's fellow employees are Suey Sing men, but that he has lived in Berkeley for more emphatically denied by them all. It is believed the murderer sought one of the other men in the place when he entered to do his deadly work and that he fired upon Tue by mistake. Tue has lived in Berkeley for more than 20 years. He was formerly employed at an Addison street laundry and had been at the Blake establishment but a short time. An autopsy held this morning showed he had been wounded three times. An inquest will be held Wednesday morning. Tue was forty years of age.

Minister Kills Wife And Attempts Suicide

LONDON, April 12.—The Rev. Samuel Henry, styled "Messiah," who on February 26 caused a sensation in the House of Commons by firing several shots at the ceiling of the lobby, was discovered today dying in his home with two revolver bullets in his head, while at his side lay his wife's body, with the throat cut. It is supposed that he killed his wife and attempted to commit suicide.

Heads of Victims Crushed and Knives Are Stuck in Bodies.

Entire Family Wiped Out in City of San Antonio, Texas.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 12.—William Burton, his wife, two children and Leon Avers, his brother-in-law, all negroes, were murdered while asleep in their homes here today. The head of each victim appears to have been crushed with an ax and butcher knives were found sticking in all bodies except those of the children. The police believe a negro fanatic

Many Streams Begin to Fall and Crisis Thought to Be Near

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 12.—The little armies of flood fighters are holding their own all along the upper stretches of the Mississippi river today. At Luxora and Osceola, Arkansas, the situation still is critical and breaks may occur but the flood is gradually receding and the end of the crisis is in sight. A fast boat with a cargo of provisions for the villagers was started from Memphis this morning.

The river here continued to fall slowly. The gauge reading at 7 o'clock this morning, showed a stage of 42.5, a fall of one-tenth of a foot since 7 o'clock last night.

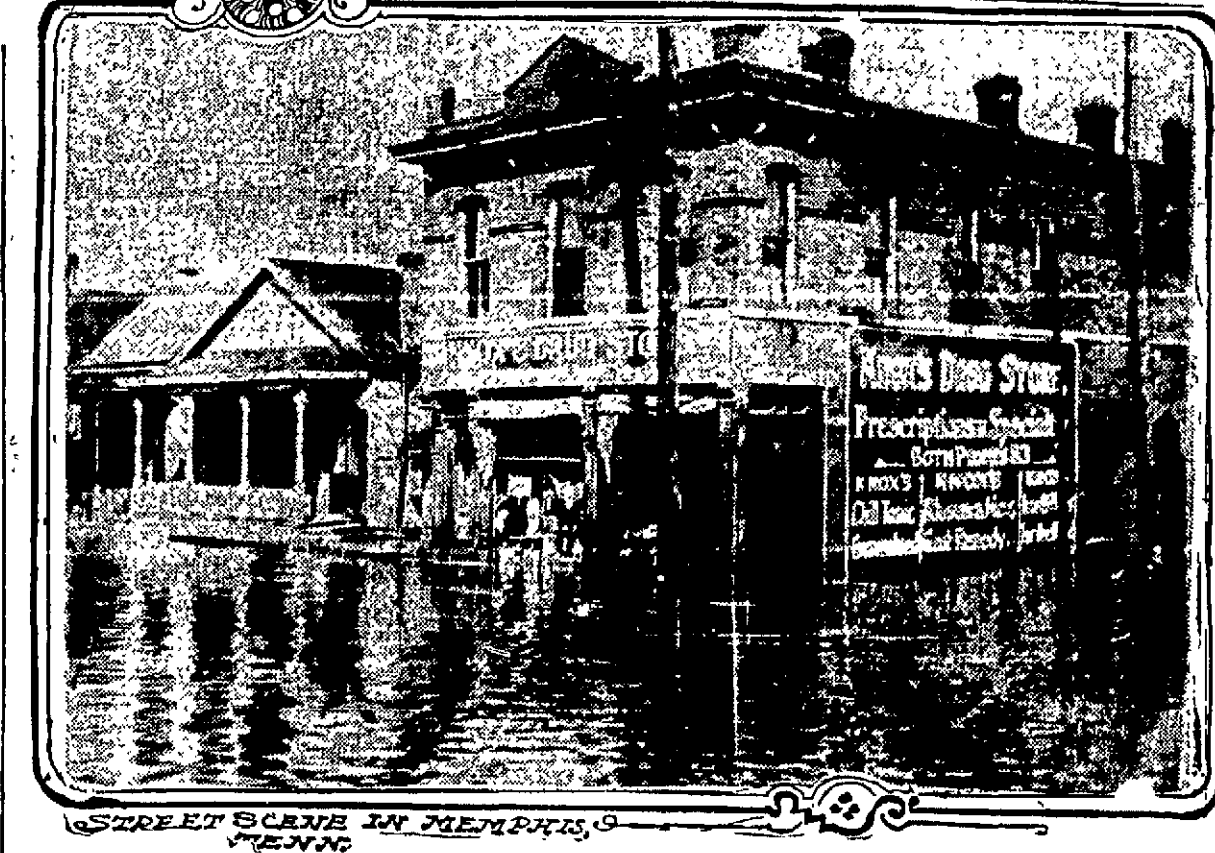

In the Memphis district, Helena, Ark., is becoming the center of interest. Water from three breaks is backing into the Mississippi river through the St. Francis river which empties into the Mississippi just above that city. However, the levee at Helena is unusually strong and it is believed it will stand the pressure.

FOUR BOYS DROWNED.
EAST LIVERPOOL, O., April 12.—Four boys were drowned early today when a boat in which they were crossing the Ohio river from the west Virginia side capsized 12 miles south of here. A fifth boy was saved. The drowned boys were Harry Brandt, 20; Earl Brandt, 18, and Hugh Sprout, 18, of Port Homer, Ohio, and Clifford Howard, 17, of Fairview, West Virginia.

OHIO IS FALLING.
CAIRO, Ill., April 12.—The Ohio river fell one-tenth of a foot last night and today the gauge registers 53.2 feet. Women and children who were sent away when the river rose above the level of the city have begun to return, despite the fact that the water is still ten feet above the city. The only way to get in or out by boat, as the railroads have not been able as yet to get their tracks repaired.

SITUATION GRAVE.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 12.—Telephone communication was lost today with Luxora and Osceola and Marked Tree, Ark., and the last news was that the levee situation was grave. This announcement was made by the St. Francis levee board. The last report from Marked Tree said the water was rising three inches an hour. Women and children have been taken to the highest points in Luxora, which for the most part lies below the levee.

Every able bodied man at Luxora is engaged in working on the levee. Telegrams to United States Senator Clark of Arkansas were forwarded by the St. Francis levee board, asking him to take up with the federal authorities the question of distributing corn and cotton seed for sowing plant-

The men were moved to a hospital, where McKenzie died soon afterward.

WOMAN CLEARS BILL ON HOME

Identifies Woman Found With Louis Parma as Her Sister.

Declares Girl Married Musician and Left Him in Six Months.

CHICAGO, April 12.—Mrs. George H. Miller of this city explains today that the woman found in the room of Louis Parma of New York after his death Monday, was her sister, formerly Clara Conner. The family home was in Indianapolis, where Clara was born in 1875. When 14 years of age, she, with the present Mrs. Miller, toured the country on the stage as the Higgins Sisters.

In 1893 Clara went abroad and met and married Parma in Vienna. Parma was then 53 years of age. The couple came to New York and within six months separated. Mrs. Parma was a patient in a sanitarium for eight months. Parma took his wife out of the sanitarium and it is supposed took her to New York. That was sixteen years ago and Mrs. Miller has not since heard from her sister, according to Mrs. Miller.

Wealthy Soap Maker Murdered at Lynn

BILL ON HOME RULE GIVEN PRAISE

Measure Generally Approved Although Some Papers Condemn It.

"Government's Scheme Is Not a Solution of Irish Problem."

DUBLIN, Ireland, April 12.—The nationalist papers of Ireland on the whole consider the government's Home Rule bill as satisfactory, although some of them profess to regard it as not being final. The Freeman's Journal described the bill as the greatest, the boldest and the most generous of the three Home Rule bills and says: "We should not be surprised to find it read with hearty welcome by the entire Irish party."

The Irish Times, Unionist, says: "The measure will prove so utterly unworkable as to offer no middle course between complete separation from Great Britain and a return to the status of the Union." The Irish Independent remarks: "It would probably be correct in describing the bill to say that it gives us three quarters of what we expected and probably not so large a share of what we demanded. The measure cannot be regarded as final."

MILD DENUNCIATION.

LONDON, April 12.—Comment on the Home Rule bill in the press follows party lines but in the case of the London Unionist, morning papers, denunciation of the bill is milder than might have been expected. An effort apparently is made to induce the nationalists against the bill by describing its provisions as illusory in the matter of giving Ireland real autonomy and ridiculing it as a measure of devotion which would not respecting section of the empire could accept.

The unionists' organs in Ireland denounce the bill in the bitterest terms. "The liberal morning papers admit the complexity of the bill and generally object to the system of nomination with respect to the Senate. They think there may be difficulty with the financial proposals which at present are little understood."

On the whole, however, the liberal and radical papers are pleased to describe the bill as a moderate, skillful and bravely attempt to give aid if not complete satisfaction, at least a substantial fulfillment of her demands. The Times in an editorial says that the Home Rule scheme will not be resolved in any quarter with much enthusiasm that it will disappoint the hopes of Nationalists in Ireland and will not allow the party to finish the hostility of Unionists in Ireland. "And," continues the Times, "if we are not mistaken it will swell the rising tide of opposition in Great Britain to a level high enough to submerge the government and their bill in a distant future. It will not even satisfy any of the various schools of theoretical home rulers."

CITY TO STOP 'LOUD NOISES'

You Must Have a Permit if You Want to Shout on the Street.

That Oakland may be a noiseless town, an ordinance was introduced at the city council this morning providing against the blowing of any horn or eight inches in length or the ringing of a bell more than four inches in diameter or the making of any "loud and unusual noise" such as playing a band or blowing a bugle without a special permit so to do. The ordinance is directed against the noisy peddlers who use objectionable methods in advertising their wares. For infringement of the ordinance a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100 is provided, with the alternative of jail imprisonment in the city jail at the rate of one day for each $2 of the fine imposed.

The ordinance includes the following provisions:

Section 1. It is hereby declared unlawful for any person, upon any public street, sidewalk, alley or other public place in the city of Oakland, or in any doorway or entrance to any building upon any such public street, sidewalk, alley or place, to blow any bugle, horn or trumpet or beat any drum or ring any bell or make any other loud, unusual or unnecessary noise for the purpose of advertising, announcing or otherwise calling attention to any goods, wares or merchandise or for the purpose of advertising, announcing or calling attention to any show, exhibition or other form of entertainment or event; provided that nothing in this ordinance shall apply to the playing of music by a band or the blowing of a bugle, or the announcing of any show, entertainment, or event upon a public street or streets in the said city for which hand music or bugle playing, or privilege or announcing, a special permit in writing has first been granted by the chief of police of said city, which permit shall specify the time and place when and where such music may be played and such bugle or bugles blown.

Section 2.—Nothing in Section 1 of this ordinance shall apply to the blowing of any locomotive whistle or street car bell or any other necessary noise or noises permitted and provided for by action of the city council, nor shall any provision of this ordinance apply to any regularly licensed peddler calling or waving in an ordinary tone of voice or ringing a bell not exceeding four inches in diameter, or blowing a horn not exceeding eight inches in length and not exceeding four inches in diameter at the larger end, upon any public street in said city in front of the residence of any customer of such peddler, for the purpose of calling the attention of such customer to the presence of such peddler in the street in front of the residence of such customer.

Section 3. For the purposes of this ordinance any "loud and unusual noise" shall be construed to be any noise which disturbs the peace of any community where such noise is made, or is prejudicial to the public health or comfort.

SET ASIDE LAND FOR CITY PARKS

Ordinance Is Introduced and Passed to Print by the City Council.

An ordinance was introduced and passed to print by the city council this morning setting aside certain lands belonging to the city for playground purposes. The tract in question was acquired for this purpose and is situated at East Twenty-eighth street and Eleventh avenue. On the recommendation of City Attorney Ben F. Woolner, an ordinance ratifying and approving the action of the board of education in acquiring 21 parcels of land for school sites under the provisions of the recent bond issue, was introduced and given its first reading this morning.

CHANGES MADE IN SENATE COMMITTEES

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Senator Lea of Tennessee has been assigned to the Senate committee on military and on postoffices and postroads formerly held by the late Senator Taylor. He has retired from the committee on naval affairs and Senator Watson of West Virginia has been assigned to membership on that committee. Senator Ashurst of Arizona has been given places on the committees on public buildings and grounds, pensions, Indian affairs, industrial exhibitions, conservation of natural resources and protection of game. Senator Smith of Arizona goes on the committee on public lands, District of Columbia, irrigation, geological survey and railroads.

Too much stress cannot be laid on the importance of proper pride on the part of citizens of Oakland in its resources and future. To much emphasis can scarcely be given to the promotion of its resources. This is the day of art in advertising, when he who advertises best secures the best returns, and no better opportunity for this publicity can be found than in a proper appreciation of the importance of Oakland's new hotel.

The hotel is the finest medium in the city of Oakland for making the merits of the east bay sections known throughout the country. Oaklanders have the best interests of their city at heart. This is evidenced by the great work they have done for the city in voting bonds for the construction of a magnificent city hall, by the erection of fine business blocks and by the improvement of the many natural attractions. It now behooves the citizens to inform the world of all these beauties and advantages, to display proper appreciation of and pride in these attractions and to advertise them for business and sentimental reasons.

As beautiful and luxurious a hostelry as that which has arisen in the city's midst in the new Hotel Oakland is a factor of incalculable value in attracting to Oakland tourists and men of business. It serves to draw attention to the fact that the city is ready to receive capital and investors. It serves as a standard by which to measure the enterprise of the community, and as such, it should be of the finest character. The hotel is a beautiful landmark that none but the very best is good enough in the construction of this monument to the city's future.

It is this fact which has given the directors of the hotel association something upon which to work in their efforts to secure the adequate completion of the new hotel in the most beautiful fashion. The committee is now securing the final efforts to carry on this work and in its efforts deserves the heartiest support of every citizen of Oakland from a financial standpoint.

REAL WILD WEST TO BE EXHIBITED

Cowboys, Indians, and Daring
Girl Riders to Appear in Oakland.

Famous cowboys, Indians, Mexican ropers, broncho-busters, expert and daring girl riders and other clever people characteristic of the real life of the ranch and prairie, will be seen with Miller Brothers and Arlington's 101 Ranch Wild West, which will be seen at Twelfth and Fallon streets, opposite Lake Merritt, the coming Monday and Tuesday, afternoon and night.

The 101 ranch is credited with being a "real" wild west exhibition for the reason that its performers have to a considerable extent been selected from the actual residents of Miller Brothers' 100,000 acre cattle ranch at Bliss, Oklahoma, and they authoritatively represent the life with which they are familiar. Among the absorbing-interesting features of the exhibition is a reproduction of the famous round-up, which first brought the Miller Brothers' Bonanza ranch into world-wide public notice. There are also thrilling displays of horsemanship, daredevil exhibitions of riding upon bucking bronchos, in which the honors are shared equally by cowboys and no less clever cowgirls, a buffalo hunt, with an entire herd of buffaloes; sports and pastimes of ranch life, in which scores of clever range people, including Lulu Parr, Tillie Baldwin, the Indian girl Wenona, and other typical Western girl riders participate, and many other unusually interesting incidental features.

The old life of the plains is illustrated by an attack on a train of prairie schooners and the overland mail by Indians; and their repulse by cowboys and scouts, led by J. C. Miller, famous as a sure-shot and a representative plainsman, as well as one of the owners of the great Oklahoma ranch from which the big show derived its name.

The opening performance will be preceded by a brilliant and novel street parade, with hundreds of Indians, cowboys, scouts and other interesting people of the real West. The various scenes will display living tableaux of scenes typical of the old days when the pioneers were "winning the West." The prairie schooners will be drawn by long-horned cattle, just as they were in the early days, and Rocky Mountain Hank, one of the most notable of the once inevitable stage drivers, will revive old memories by driving six horses in one of the best-preserved of the famous overland mail coaches.

We cannot approve of these executive session committee fights. Let them be held on the floor of the House in the usual way, so that we can all see 'em.

CHARGE OF ROBBERY DISMISSED BY JUDGE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—After a thorough investigation, Superior Judge Lawlor this morning dismissed the charge of robbery preferred against Joseph Ojedoka, an Indian lad, who had been originally sentenced to twelve years in San Quentin penitentiary. At the time of passing of judgment the boy pleaded that he had never had a chance, and swore that he was not guilty of holding up Long Way, on January 25, in company with Edward Wilson. After the court had sentenced him judgment was revoked, and today a motion for a new trial was first granted, and was followed by the motion to dismiss Wilson's case which was disposed of tomorrow.

RILEY GOES ON TRIAL FOR DEADLY ASSAULT

The preliminary examination of M. L. Riley, charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder, was commenced before Judge George Samuels today. Riley became involved in an altercation with L. Sorenson after taking several drinks at the Triangle saloon, Sixteenth and Adeline streets, Sunday, March 31. In the fight he pulled a revolver from his pocket and took a shot at Sorenson, whom he missed, the bullet wounding Charles Olson of 4371 Howe street. Riley received a dangerous wound, and is still under treatment at the Fabiola hospital.

Poll Tax Notice

Oakland, March 11, 1919.

Poll Tax of two dollars for the year 1911 is now due and payable at the Assessor's office, room one, Court House, or to a Deputy Assessor.
 Section 3839 of the Political Code reads as follows:
 Every male inhabitant of the State over twenty-one and under sixty years of age except paupers, insane persons and Indians, must annually pay a Poll Tax of two dollars, provided the same be not between the first Monday in August.

Section 3848 of the Political Code makes it the duty of the Assessor to demand Poll Tax of every person liable to pay the same, and on the neglect or refusal of such person to pay, he must collect by seizure and sale of any personal property owned by such person.

Under Sections 429 and 435 every person who refuses to pay the poll tax, or who names of any person in his employ, or who in any manner obstructs the Assessor or any of his assistants in the collection of the Poll Tax, is guilty of the crime of a misdemeanor, and liable to a fine of $500 or imprisonment in the County Jail or both, for each day of imprisonment.

Only those persons under twenty-one or over sixty years of age are exempt. Poll tax must be paid on demand.

C. F. HORNER,
Assessor of Alameda County.
